Miss Gordon Reins Extended Courtesies

Among the first of the pre-nuptial courtesies given for Miss Gordon Reins, bride-elect of September, was the informal tea given by Mrs. Dwight Miller and Miss Harriett Crutchfield at the home of Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. George Forester, on E Street Wednesday afternoon. The honoree, who is to be married to Robert Riggs Smoak, of Wilkesboro, was presented with a corsage of white roses and china in her chosen pattern. Two groups of friends called between the hours of four to five and were served a tea course in the dining room by the hostesses, who were assisted by Mrs. Forester and Miss Pat McNeil. Quantities of mixed garden flowers made a festive setting for the occasion.

Another delightful courtesy for Miss Reins was the bridge party given by Miss Elizabeth McNeil at her home on Ninth Street Thursday evening. Sharing honors with Miss Reins were Mrs. James Lowe, the former Miss Lucy Thurston, of Taylorsville, and Miss Martha Badgett, of Maryville, Tenn., who was here visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Allen. All three of the honorees were remembered with gifts. Bridge was played at five tables arranged amid attractive decorations of mixed summer flowers. Prizes in the game were awarded to Miss Norma Smoak for high score and to Miss Mary Elmore Finley for low score. At the beginning of play Miss McNeil was assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. B. McNeil, and Miss Mary Louise Newton in serving a dessert course.

Proceeding the tea Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., had Miss Reins and a few of the neighbors in for an informal hour. The group on arrival were invited into the dining room for refreshments, where effective bridal decorations were used and a corsage marked the honoree's place. During the hour Mrs. Coffey read a comical wedding poem, and presented Miss Reins with a gift, to which was attached a shower of white hearts bearing wedding superstitions, and best wishes for the bride to be.

Card Party Given Thursday Evening

Mrs. Charles McNeil, Mrs. O. K. Stevens, and Mrs. H. H. Dotson were hostesses at a lovely card party at the McNeil home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Bridge and rook were played during the evening and was preceded by a dessert course. High and second high score prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. Harry Pearson and Mrs. Robert Johnson, high score award in rook went to Mrs. David Lowe, and the bingo prize to Mrs. Walter H. Jones. Mrs. Claude Hutchens, the former Miss Clyde Shepherd, was given crystal in her pattern. Attractive arrangements of cut flowers made a colorful background for the players.

Ex Libris Club Met With Mrs. Deal

Libris club members and three additional guests, Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant and her aunt, Mrs. Gardner W. Beckett, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is here visiting in the Sturdivant home and with other relatives, and Mrs. W. A. Rousseau, were entertained by Mrs. Vernon Deal Friday afternoon. An interesting program was given on Old Salem with Mrs. Harry Kerley telling about the restoration of some of the old buildings, and Mrs. William Marlow giving a review of the book "The Road to Salem" by Adelaide L. Fries. Mrs. Richard Johnston, the president, was in charge of a short business session. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Ellen Robinson Hostess to Her Club

Miss Ellen Robinson was gracious hostess to the members of the Wednesday Sewing club and a few extra guests at her home on E Street Wednesday afternoon. Guests of the club were Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant and her aunt, Mrs. Gardner W. Beckett, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is here on a visit; Mrs. Howard Price, of Mooresville, who was visiting in the home of Mrs. J. L. Clements, Mrs. James O. McDiarmid and her daughter, Miss Katharine McDiarmid, of Austin, Texas, who is here on an extended visit. Following an informal hour the guests were served tempting refreshments by Miss Robinson being assisted by her niece, Miss McDiarmid.
