

Teen Age Center Will Be Formed

Cecil Adamson, chairman of the Wilkes Chamber of Commerce Education Committee, announced today that the formation of the 1947-48 Wilkes Teen Age Center had been held up until the arrival of the newly appointed manager of the Wilkes Chamber, Tom Jenrette.

Mr. Adamson stated that Jenrette had had a great deal of experience in recreation work and he felt that his assistance would be invaluable.

There will be a meeting of the old Board of Directors of the Wilkes Teen Age Center for both junior and senior members in the very near future.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend to our many friends our deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for the many kind deeds and sympathy shown us during the death of my husband and our father.

MRS. M. DEAN LOWE AND CHILDREN.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our neighbors and friends for all kindness shown our dear loving husband, father and grandfather, John Finley Cox, during his illness and death and also for the beautiful flowers they sent.

THE FAMILY

Grain export quotas for November as announced by the U. S. D. A. total 788,800 long tons of wheat, flour (in wheat equivalent), and grain sorghums. The November figure compares with the October export quota of 1,213,400 long tons.

Winners In Tacky Party Announced

The tacky party held Wednesday night at the Roller-drome between the Wilkesboros was highly successful and provided much entertainment.

More than 20 contestants participated and competition was keen. Tackiest couple prize went to two couples who tied for first. They were Miss Peggy Bumgarner and Ike Johnson, Miss Goldie Combs and Roy McLemore. Brad Davis took first prize for the tackiest individual. All winners were given $5 each.

Another tacky party is planned for the near future.

The Game Warden's Lament

By Gilbert Russell Brackett

If the game warden asks to see your license, he's insulting.

If he takes your word for having one, he's corrupt.

If he arrests a violator, he's showing how rough he can be.

If he gives the culprit another chance, he's showing favoritism.

If he labors day and night to enforce the law, he's a tyrant.

If he relaxes at all, he's a shirker and a crook.

If he talks fish and game conservation, he's maudlin.

If he keeps quiet, he's not interested in his work.

If he accepts suggestions or advice, he's incompetent.

If he works out problems for himself, he's a know-all.

If he acts like a gentleman, he's too easy.

If he acts firm, he's unfair and a rascal.

Ashes to ashes, Dust to dust,

If the sportsmen don't do it, The Game Warden must!
