BEER—America's Beverage of Moderation

Patronize

... the beer dealer who maintains wholesome conditions, obeys every law, respects the social standards of his community. Patronize him—and commend him.

As respectable dealers in a respectable business, the overwhelming majority of beer retailers of North Carolina suggest this as a means of safeguarding the beer tax revenue pouring into the public treasuries of our State, Counties and Municipalities.

A program of songs was rendered last Sunday night at Damascus Baptist church by "The Four Sons of the South" quartet frequently heard over WILX. The quartet is composed of four brothers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Milas Graham of North Wilkesboro.

Members of the Community Club went to Yadkinville Thanksgiving day. In a joint meeting with the missionary circle of Yadkinville. The meeting was held at the church and was well attended. Building of a new church is well underway under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. Howell. Rev. Dennis Palmer brought the message in the afternoon using for a theme "Thanksgiving Remembrances". Rev. Palmer took his text from James 1st chapter, 17th verse, and Psalms 139, and 17th verse.

The Missionary Circle of Damascus Baptist church held the usual rummage sale and plate dinner at the home of Mrs. Ollie Suddith Thanksgiving day.

Rev. R. R. White has returned from the annual conference held in Winston-Salem. His many friends and members are glad to know that he has been assigned his same church back for the next year, the Rickard Chapel A. M. E. Zion church.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Lincoln Heights school held its regular meeting of the month Thursday night, Nov. 13th with the president, Mrs. Elizabeth Grinton, in charge. Mr. D. Smith, Scoutmaster of Winston-Salem, was speaker. Mr. Smith gave a very interesting talk. Also gave a number of demonstrations of some of the Scout activities and games in which he is engaged. All of which were very interesting and entertaining. Plans for the completing of the lunch room were discussed. Many helpful suggestions were given by the parents and teachers.

Service was held Sunday afternoon at Rickards Chapel A. M. E. Zion church. Rev. R. R. White, pastor. Rev. Mr. Baxter, of Alabama, brought the message of the hour, taking his text from the 1st chapter and 16th verse of Revelations. Rev. Baxter delivered a most wonderful soul stirring message, full of inspiration. His theme was "Watch the Seven Stars". Rev. Baxter then pointed out how one must first have faith in Jesus Christ, second, see your self, third, be broad, fourth, can you pray the right prayer, fifth, do your duty, then qualify, sixth, have the blood of Jesus on your heart, seventh, have compassion on the lost. Thus the seven stars were beautifully illustrated. Rev. Baxter was pastor of Beulah Presbyterian church of Fairplains a few years ago.

In its last business meeting for the year 1947, the First Baptist church approved of a budget calling for $4,000 with which to operate in 1948. Of this amount, $1,300 is expected to be used for general current expenses such as: emergency repairs, fuel and lights, mimeograph supplies, pastor's salary, sexton's and pianists' pay. Approximately $1,900 is to be used for departmental current expenses including, literature for all study groups; uniforms and musical supplies for two choirs; ushers equipment; support to home, state, and foreign missions; ministerial education, delegate expenses; and picnics and other group socials. The remaining $800 is to be held by the building fund treasury. This new $4,000 budget is an increase of about $1,000 over last year's budget of $3,000 which covered the church's total operational costs.

The church also re-elected officers for the new year. Most of officers retained their old positions. However, James Turner was elected as Superintendent of the Sunday school, and Mrs. Mary Waugh president of the Missionary department. All new officers will be installed the first of the year, 1948.

Right up in the FOUR-FRONT

SCATTERED across this nation are some of the cagiest automobile buyers the world ever saw.

They cut their eyeteeth on a steering wheel, so to speak—they know car values from A to izzard — and you have to be plenty good to step ahead of your price class in the volume of your sales to them.

That's why it's startling—sometimes even to us—to see the double-barreled story of public preference that's written in the sales records and registration figures:

ITEM: Only three cars outsell Buick—and all of these are in the so-called "low-price field."

ITEM: In some localities—and quite often in polls that ask "Which car will you buy next?" — Buick ranks not fourth, but third, actually ahead of one of the lowest-priced three.

Naturally, the smart buyer will ask "How come?"

Well, the most standout style of the season, the style that's the clearest forecast of wonderful things to be, undoubtedly has much to do with it.

But that isn't all. The dollar is still a pretty important measuring stick.

So we don't think Buick could be where it is if it didn't offer a bigger dollar's worth — bigger in size and substance, in lift and life, in soft ride and easy handling, bigger in the all-round happiness you'll get out of your buy.

Which suggests, of course:

Why go against the solid judgment of your fellow men? Why not see your Buick dealer now—with or without a car to trade — and place the order that will put you where you belong, right up in the four-front?
