Peiffer-Ritchie Vows In N. J.

Elizabeth, N. J., Dec. 20.—Miss Betty Jean Peiffer, daughter of Henry Brunnquell Peiffer, of 523 Union street, Rahway, was married to James Ritchie, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ritchie, of Hollywood Farm, Pores Knob, N. C., at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at All Saints Church Elizabeth, with Very Rev. Henry Baldwin Todd, II, officiating. The altar was decorated with ferns and white flowers and the stained glass windows, banked with flowers, had a candle at each window.

The reception for 100 guests at the Elizabeth Town and Country Club was in a setting of white flowers. Sydney Overton, organist of Calvary Methodist Church, of East Orange, played the wedding music and a classmate of Miss Peiffer, Miss Rose Frances Dipizzo, sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Marcia Gilbert, of Sudbury, Mass., maid of honor. Miss Angeline Calvano, of Millburn, and Miss Alberta Koscielniak, of Linden, were bridesmaids.

Mr. Ritchie had his cousin, William D. Ritchie, as best man and ushers were Alexander Kosarski and Archie MacIntyre, of Rahway, and David A. Dubow, of Hillside.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white skinner satin with a sheer yoke outlined by an off shoulder swath of satin, curved to a minimum waist and rounded neckline and the skirt flowing into folds of a long train. Her long silk illusion veil fell from a wreath of orange blossoms and her bouquet was a cascade of white sweet peas and roses.

The attendants were gowned in white faille, with off-the-shoulder yoke, tight basque, long full skirt, and elbow length white gloves. They wore Juliet caps covered with white feathers. The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of red poinsettias, green croton foliage and ivy with a green bow. The bridesmaid, carried similar bouquets with white bows. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ritchie, wore a street length dress of black beaded crepe and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of St. Ann's Episcopal School, Arlington Heights, Mass., and a 1947 graduate of the U. S. Naval Cadet Nurse Corps at the School of Nursing of the Elizabeth General Hospital. The bridesmaids were classmates. The bridegroom, graduate of Wilkesboro, N. C., High School, is at present a student at North Caroline State College in Raleigh. He is a member of the college swimming team. During the war he spent three and a half years as a pharmacist's mate in the Navy and saw active duty in the Pacific.

For traveling Miss Peiffer chose a Parisian style black wool suit, gray fur coat and black and white accessories. Her corsage was of white camellias.

Following a motor trip to the Poconos, the couple will live in Raleigh.

Peanut growers throughout the Nation are expected to produce about 194,271,000 pounds this year as compared with a production of 76,706,000 pounds last year.
