Miss Marjorie Miller Feted at Tea

Mrs. Ruth Holder, Miss Rhetta Forester, and Miss Margaret Ellen Sauls, of Sumter, S. C., received at tea in a lovely bridal setting at the North Wilkesboro Woman's clubhouse Monday afternoon honoring Miss Marjorie Miller, bride-elect of the week. Miss Miller, who is to be married to Thomas Edward Crysel in a formal ceremony Thursday evening at the Wilkesboro Methodist church, and Miss Sauls are nieces of Mrs. Holder and Miss Forester.

Charles Houck, Misses Lillian and Mary Lindsay Stafford, Good-byes were spoken to Mrs. P. E. Forester and Mrs. Homer Carlton.

The tea table, spread with a white Maderia cloth, was centered with a silver bowl of white snapdragons about which white candles gleamed in two triple silver candelabra. About the room were artistic arrangements of greenery, white flowers, and white candles.

Mrs. Wood Hostess To Mtn. View Club

The Mountain View Home Demonstration club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Callie Wood on the 2nd Wednesday of this month. In the absence of our President, our vice president presided over the meeting.

After repeating the club collect together we discussed our club business. Mrs. Glenn Daney, Jr., our family life leader, gave us an interesting reading on an article, "We Face Death Together."

Due to bad weather and the condition of the roads we only had nine members present, but everybody had a good time. Our hostess served a delicious fruit salad with red jello cut out in the shape of hearts, cake and coffee.

Before leaving our recreation leader told fortunes.—Reported.

Alan Foster Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Max Foster entertained at a Valentine party at her home on F Street Saturday afternoon honoring her son, Alan, on his eighth birthday anniversary. The number of guests, fourteen boys and girls, were in keeping with the date of the occasion. Games and contests ere enjoyed and in a donkey contest Kay Forester was the winner of the prize. Following the period of play the children were served ice cream and cake. The white birthday cake was topped with eight tiny red candles, and favors were Valentine baskets filled with Valentine candies. Alan received lots of nice gifts. In the entertainment of the children Mrs. Foster was assisted by her daughter, Miss Betty Lou Foster.

Wesleyan Guild In Monthly Meeting

Miss Irene Culler and her sister, Mrs. Edison Norman, were hostesses to the members of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Wilkesboro Methodist church in their monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at the Culler home. The theme for devotionals and the program, "The Brotherhood Way of Life," was given by Mrs. Howard Pharr, who was assisted by Mrs. M. M. Brame, Jr.

Mrs. Robert Gambill, the president, was in charge of the business session at which time a discussion took place on securing new members. Fifteen members were present and were served sandwiches with Russian tea during the social hour.

Gilreath Club In January Meeting

The Gilreath Home Demonstration club met January 23, at the home of Mrs. Cora Parker. Despite the snow and severe cold weather, 10 members were present. In absence of our Home Agents the ladies decided to just have a free for all discussion on plans for the new year's work. Many things are planned for the improvement of the community.

The project leaders are as follows: Mrs. M. V. Robinson, foods and nutrition; Mrs. Cora Parker, home gardens; Mrs. Lizzie Costner, home poultry; Mrs. Albert Baity, home dairy; Mrs. Daniel Tedder, food preservation; Mrs. Albert Baity, house furnishings; Mrs. W. H. Tevepangh, home management; Mrs. Ed Hendren, family life; Mrs. Joe Reavis, home beautification; Mrs. Guy Scott, clothing. Each lady is asked to give a little skit on their project during the year. Each one is asked to report at the end of the year, the things they have carried out each month. This will help us to put into practice the many helpful things we learn in club work.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. M. V. Robinson February 25. Demonstration: Get more color in meals with fruits and vegetables.

P. S. We welcome visitors to our club meetings.—Reported.

Cricket Club Holds February Meeting

Mrs. J. P. Crysel and Mrs. Phil Forester were hostesses to members of the Cricket Home Demonstration Club Wednesday afternoon, February 4, at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Crysel.

The president, Mrs. D. E. Turner, presided during the business part of the meeting. For the opening number the group sang "America," and repeated together the Collect of Club Women of America.

Minutes of the January meeting were read by the secretary. Mrs. Bob D. Church, who also called the roll. There were 24 present at this meeting. Reports were heard also from Mrs. Edd Bumgarner, General Club Treasurer; Mrs. J. P. Crysel, Building Fund Treasurer, and Mrs. Clyde Phillips, flower fund treasurer.

Several different plans were discussed on how to raise additional amounts to add to our building fund. More definite plans along this line are expected to be heard at the March meeting.

The club members voted unanimously to send a "Sunshine Box" to a young shut-in of our community.

It would have been well worth any homemaker's time to attend this meeting. The information given by Mrs. Annie H. Greene, Home Agent, on "Gardening," and "Getting More Green and Yellow Vegetables in Our Diet," will enable us to plan our gardens so we will have a wider variety of home grown, fresh vegetables all during the summer months, with a surplus to can, or freeze, for use when the supply of fresh vegetables are gone.

Mrs. Dick Thompson, Recreational Leader, took charge of the program at this point and lead the group in some interesting contests. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Phil Forester and Mrs. Clyde Phillips. Members of the club surprised Mrs. Bob Church with a birthday shower, and, also presented her with a lovely floor lamp.

Attractively decorated and delicious cupcakes, Valentine mints and coffee were served by the hostesses at the conclusion of the program.

Our next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. C. Goodwin on Wednesday afternoon, March 5. Every member is urged to be present. "New Fashions" is the subject for discussion, and we are all interested in what's new in the fashion world.—Reported.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Whereas on the 20th of January, 1948, the all wise Creator in His wisdom saw fit to remove from the Bible class of the Arbor Grove Methodist church Sunday school, community and loved ones, Bro. T. E. Nichols (known as Uncle Tom) to his reward for his faithfulness, unselfishness, and his smile of fellowship. By reason of strength he lived and passed the four score mark by seven years. We feel that the all wise Creator was pleased to let him live to his ripe old age.

Resolved, First: The Bible class of the Arbor Grove Sunday school has lost a worthy member, and exhort the young boys and girls of our Sunday school to exemplify the good traits of Uncle Tom.

Resolved Second: That we as members of the Arbor Grove Sunday School do our utmost to create within us that we might have the interest in Sunday school as was exhibited in Uncle Tom, as he always wanted to know how the Sunday school was progressing, having been afflicted near on to two years, which prohibited his attendance but he never forgot, the Sunday school and the fellowship which he so much enjoyed.

Resolved, Third: That we the members of the Bible class, extend to the widow, and children, our deepest sympathy and admonish them to follow after and trust in the one that does now comfort him, and request that a copy of these resolutions be placed on the records of our Sunday school, a copy handed to the widow and children, and a copy sent to The Journal-Patriot with request to publish.

A large group of friends called during the tea hours from 3:30 to 5:30, and were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Frank Blair and Mrs. Jimmy Anderson. Mrs. F. C. Forester presented callers to the receiving line composed of the hostesses, the honoree, and her mother, Mrs. William Warner Miller, Sr. Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes directed the guests to the tea table where tea was poured by Mrs. Allen Sauls, of Sumter, S. C., mother of Miss Sauls. Sandwiches, cakes, and fruits in keeping with the bridal motif were served by Mrs. William Warner Miller, Jr., Mrs.
