Funeral Services Held For Mrs. J. W. Moore

Funeral service for Mrs. J. W. Moore, North Wilkesboro, Route 3, was conducted by Rev. A. E. Watts at Edgewood Baptist church Wednesday, April 14th, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Moore passed away at her home Monday, April 12th, at 12:10 p. m. She had been in failing health for the past year, and critically ill for a week prior to her death.

She was born Sept. 4, 1863, and departed this life April 12, 1948, being 84 years, 7 months, and 8 days of age. She professed faith in Christ in her early girlhood, and served him faithfully for the rest of her life. She was a faithful member of Edgewood Baptist church for many years. She was always found in her place there as long as her health permitted.

Before her marriage she was Miss Annie Matilda Hendren. She was married to J. W. Moore Sept. 20, 1888. To this union were born eight children, four of whom preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband and the following children, Clifford Moore, North Wilkesboro; J. D. Moore, West Exeter, N. Y.; Mrs. T. J. McNeill, Charlotte; Mrs. H. C. Sebastian, Hickory. Also one sister, Miss Emily Hendren of the home.

Mrs. Moore was a devoted wife, and mother. Her passing will be mourned by her family and friends.

Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Moore were: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McNeill and son, Jack, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sebastian and children, Wanda, Wayne and Cecel, of Hickory; Mr. J. D. Moore, West Exeter, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Bland Robertson and son, Ronnie, of Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Warren H. Pardue, Chapel Hill; Mrs. Robert Morrison, Booneville.

J. M. Miller Dies In Arlington, Va.

James Morris Miller, of 4320 N. 4th Street, Arlington, Va., who had many relatives and friends in Watauga, Ashe and Wilkes counties, was drowned early Sunday morning, April 11, 1948, in Potomac river where the boat in which he and an uncle, H. C. Miller were riding, capsized throwing the two men into the water. The uncle clung to the boat while Morris started swimming to shore only 25 feet away.

His efforts to reach shore were vain, the uncle stating he soon slipped under water and he saw him no more. The body was recovered six hours later under three feet of water near shore.

Mr. Miller was born Sept. 9, 1921, at Deep Gap, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Clint M. Miller, who now reside at Purlear. He was converted and joined Gap Creek Baptist church at the age of 16 years, remaining a member there till death.

He was employed by Capitol Airlines as supervisor of inventory control, and held in high esteem by all who knew him. Had also served in U. S. army in Panama.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, 1:30 from Ives Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. Stevens, attended by a very large crowd. Burial was in Arlington cemetery. Beside the parents he is survived by the wife, Mrs. Virginia Pearson Miller, one daughter, Linda Sue, age 2 years, two sisters, Miss Lillian Miller, Arlington, Va., Mrs. Louise Wey, Brookler, Fla.

Gastonia Man, Wife Get Prison Sentences

Gastonia.—A textile couple was sentenced to 18 to 28 years here yesterday in the death of W. T. Guffey, 69, early this month.

Roy Price, 34, and his wife, Nancy, 32, entered pleas of guilty to second degree murder in Superior Court.

Sentence was passed by Judge J. A. Rousseau.

A signed confession stated that the two beat Guffey with an iron scale weight and an iron pipe following a drinking party April 2.

The man died a week later in a local hospital.
