Jones-Dresser Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elmer Jones, North Wilkesboro, announce the engagement of their younger daughter, Margaret Louise, to Frank Thomas Dresser, older son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Charles Dresser, of Appomattox, Virginia. The wedding will take place in the early summer.

The bride-elect, a granddaughter of R. Walter Kurpees and the late Mrs. Luzene Maxwell Kurpees, of Davie county, is a member of the Senior class of State Teachers College, Farmville, Va., where she will receive her A. B. Degree in May. She is a member of Kappa Delta Pi Honor Society and the Cotillion Club.

Mr. Dresser, a graduate of Virginia Military Institute at Lexington, Va., is a Veteran of the United States Navy in World War II.

Mrs. Roy Crouse Is Feted at Party

An outstanding social event of the week was the large card party given by Mrs. William K. Newton and Mrs. T. S. Jenrette at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogdon Street Tuesday evening complimenting Mrs. Roy Crouse, the former Miss Nina Call. Bridge was played at nine tables and ruck at one table arranged in a festive setting of mixed spring blossoms. A dessert course was served at the beginning of play, and punch during the evening.

High and low score prizes in bridge were won by Mrs. M. B. McNeil and Mrs. F. C. Forester and in ruck by Mrs. Ira Payne, Mrs. J. M. Derr, Jr., held the traveler's prize and Mrs. J. W. Powell was the winner in bingo. The honoree received from the hostesses a corsage of white carnations and crystal in her pattern.

Millers Creek Basket Ball Team Honored at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Lin Bumgarner and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark were hosts at a dinner party at the Clark home at Millers Creek Saturday evening honoring the Millers Creek high school All Star Basketball team. (Around thirty were present including the manager of the team and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Burleson, and wives and girl friends of the team members. After the dinner informal games were enjoyed. Green and white, the basket ball colors, were emphasized in the decorations and table appointments.

Senior Woman's Club Met On Monday

The North Wilkesboro Senior Woman's Club met Monday afternoon, April 19, at 3 o'clock at the clubhouse on Trogdon Street. The president, Mrs. J. Quincy Adams, presided over the meeting. Mrs. Robert Gibbs spoke on the Conservation of Youth, pointing out a number of things that were being done for the young people of the community and urging the group to assist in the various youth projects, particularly the Scout work.

The topic for the afternoon was "Town Beautiful." Mrs. Arthur Venable, as leader, said that our homes and town represented our personalities. Mrs. Edd Gardner, president of the Garden Club, outlined the work of the club in beautifying plots in town, the colored school grounds, and the county hospital. Mrs. A. C. Chamberlain discussed flower arrangements, based on the short course she attended in Asheville. The members of the Garden Club had on display a large number of very original and artistic arrangements. In order to share with the general public these arrangements, the club held open house again after the short meeting of the Junior Woman's Club, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Hostesses for afternoon were Mesdames A. C. Chamberlain, J. B. Carter, E. P. Hettiger, L. S. Lowe, E. O. Triplett, Watt Cooper, Cecil Hauss, and Miss Toby Turner. Refreshments were served to 39 members and visitors.

Woman's Society Met Tuesday Evening

The April meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lois Scroggs having twenty-four members present. Members of the Franklin circle were in charge of the program the theme of which was "The Earth and Her Increase." Miss Jo Lassiter led the devotions, Miss Dot Bell and Mrs. H. M. Bivens told about the work of the rural churches.

Mrs. James C. Mills, the president, was in charge of the business session during which time the usual reports were heard. It was decided to hold the spring mission study on Tuesday evening, May 18, at the Woman's clubhouse, the same plan to be used as for last fall's mission study. This study will take the place of the regular Society meeting for May.

Mrs. Paul Billings Hostess at Tea

On Saturday afternoon, April 17, a lovely tea was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Billings honoring Misses Sallie Outlaw and Lena Long. Miss Otulaw, who was visiting in North Wilkesboro during the week-end, is a former member of the Public School faculty. Miss Long, a present member of the faculty, is to be married in the summer. Both honorees were presented a gift by the hostess. Beautiful flower arrangements of spring flowers decorated the home. Delicious sandwiches, cookies, mints, and punch were served during the afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors for their kindness during our recent bereavement. The many beautiful flowers were also greatly appreciated.
