Edmiston-Walsh Vows Solemnized

An informal wedding, beautiful in its simplicity, took place at the Beaver Creek Baptist church Sunday evening, April 25, when Sarah Elizabeth Edmiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edmiston of Denny, N. C., was united in marriage with Lester Zelotesse Walsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Fred Walsh, of the Beaver Creek community.

Mrs. L. Fred Walsh, of the Beaver Creek community.

Rev. D. M. Edmiston, former pastor of both Miss Edmiston and Mr. Walsh, performed the ceremony, using the double ring service.

The vows were spoken in a setting of green and white with lighted tapers in floor-branched candelabra.

Miss June Foster and Miss Iva Lou Walsh were the wedding musicians. While the candles were being lighted Miss Foster played "O Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star" (Wagner) and "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" (Saint-Saens). During the ceremony muted notes of "To a Wild Rose" (McDowell), were heard. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional. Prior to the ceremony Miss Foster sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Miss Walsh. As a benediction she sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was dressed in a light blue suit with white accessories. She carried a white prayer book showered with white carnations and valley lilies from which huge long white satin streamers.

Miss Cleo Walsh, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Miss Mary Lee Edmiston, sister of the bride, and Miss Sue Walsh, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were pink crepe, with which they used white accessories. They carried identical bouquets of white snapdragons and pink roses.

Flower girls were little Misses Vivian Walsh and Brenda Carole Edmiston. They were dressed alike in dainty dresses of white dotted swiss.

Best man for the groom was his father. Ushers were Clint Edmiston, brother of the bride and La Fayette Matherly, close friend of the groom.

Mrs. Edmiston, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress with black accessories and her shoulder corsage was white carnations. Mrs. Walsh, mother of the groom, chose a pink dress with black accessories. Her corsage was white carnations. Mrs. W. C. Walsh, grandmother of the groom, wore a grey suit using grey and black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was red roses.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wilkesboro high school and attended Wake Forest College before his induction into the Marine Corps in which he served two years.

The bridal couple will make their home in the Beaver Creek community.

Those traveling from a distance to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Walsh and Mrs. Robert Crow, of Valdese, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Wade Walsh, Miss Bill Greer, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Triplett, Sr., Mr. Hill Triplett and Mr. and Mrs. Fin German and children, of Lenoir, N. C., Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Edmiston and Mr. and Mrs. Crayte Teague, of Boone, N. C.

Cake Cutting
Following the rehearsal Saturday evening Miss Cleo Walsh entertained members of the wedding party at a cake cutting at her home on the Beaver Creek road. The rooms were attractively decorated carrying out a color scheme of green, white and pink.

The dining room table was covered with a pretty lace cloth and centered with the three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, lighted by white tapers in crystal candelabra. The cake was cut in the traditional manner after which Miss Walsh, assisted by Mrs. Frank Edmiston, cut and served the cake, while Mrs. Clint Edmiston and Mrs. Crayte Teague presided at the punch bowls serving green and pink punch, with nuts and mints, to the guests.

Lenoir Rhyne Student Fined

Statesville, April 26.—In Federal court here this afternoon Broadus Caudle, 22-year-old Lenoir Rhyne college student, tendered a plea of nolo contendere to an extortion charge, was ordered to pay a $500 fine, and was placed on probation and good behavior for two years.

J. E. Broyhill, Lenoir capitalist, to whom Caudle wrote an extortion note demanding $1,000, was not here to prosecute, as he is reported as saying he did not believe the boy meant to do any violence.

In giving the young defendant a year and a day in Federal prison, suspended on probation and good behavior for two years and on payment of a fine of $500, Judge E. Y. Webb suggested that the boy sell his automobile to pay the fine and other debts. The court expressed the belief that Caudle intended to do no violence when he wrote the note to Mr. Broyhill. There was a general feeling among court officials that the defendant should continue his course in school.
