

Fish Didn't Read Fishing Calendar

Raleigh — Gov. Gregg Cherry and some advice for fishermen yesterday.

The Governor said he had received a complaint from a Florida fisherman who had purchased a temporary North Carolina license for a few days in the highlands area and had not caught any fish. It seemed he wanted his money back.

The Governor said all he needed was a cane pole, a sinker made from the lead seal off a railroad car, some plain old worms, and a copy of Coble's Fisherman's Calendar.

"Coble says there should have been good fishing while the gentleman was here," the Governor remarked, "but I don't know whether the fish read it or not."

Mosser Visit Is Expected Here

J. BELMONT MOSSER
Officers of the Kiwanis Club of North Wilkesboro learned today that J. Belmont Mosser, prominent Pennsylvania industrialist and recently elected president of Kiwanis International, probably will speak in this section sometime during his one-year administration.

Paul Osborne, vice-president of the club, said that following his election at Los Angeles, the new Kiwanis Chief Executive had indicated he would launch his speaking itinerary in late summer. This schedule undoubtedly will carry him into a majority of the 29 Kiwanis districts throughout the United States and Canada, Paul added.

Delegates to the largest convention in the history of Kiwanis International named Mosser to succeed Dr. Charles W. Armstrong, Salisbury, N. C., who served as president of the community service organization during the past year.

Long active in eastern industrial circles, Mosser is vice-president and general sales manager of the Speer Carbon Company and vice-president of the International Graphite and Electrode Corp., both at St. Marys, Pa., where he maintains his home.

In a press conference a few days ago, Mosser said that during his administration he would advocate a program of adult education based primarily on the principle that freedom is "everybody's business." He declared the public must become aware of the dangers that threaten liberty.

"The apathetic and indifferent attitude of today that has resulted in mounting government debt, in broken homes, and empty churches is not the spirit that forded the rivers and scaled the Rocky Mountains."

Mosser said that it is essential that "we realize that the ballot is sacred, that youth must have proper leadership, and that the government is the servant of the people."

Active in civic affairs for many years, the new Kiwanis president recently was appointed by Governor Duff of Pennsylvania to the State Committee to Study Educational Facilities. He also is a past chairman of the carbon section of the National Electrical Manufacturers association. In St. Marys, he has served as co-chairman of six war fund drives and as a director of the St. Marys Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Community Chest.

Mosser was treasurer of Kiwanis International for the past two years. Prior to that time he served as a member of the international board of trustees, international committee chairman, governor of the Pennsylvania Kiwanis District, and president of the St. Marys club.

As president of Kiwanis International, he will represent more than 2,300 clubs throughout the United States, Canada, Alaska and Hawaii, embracing a membership of 190,000 business and professional leaders.
