Mrs. J. Q. Adams Entertains Her Club

To begin their new club year the Tea and Topics club members were entertained by Mrs. J. Q. Adams at her home on F street Thursday evening. Rook was played at three tables arranged in a setting of fall flowers, and was followed by a salad course with sweets. High and second high score prizes in the game went to Miss Norma Stevenson and Mrs. Murphy Hunt, while the winners in bingo were Mrs. Joe Pearson and Mrs. Ralph Duncan.

Mrs. Albert Garwood Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Wilbri bridge club and a few visitors were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Albert Garwood at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Top score prize in the game played at three tables for club members went to Mrs. Edison Norman and for the visitors to Mrs. Johnson Sanders. Miss Pattie Somers received the bingo award. Refreshments were served at the close of play, and decorations featured the Halloween motif.

Dr. Wayland Speaks To Woman's Club

held its monthly meeting Friday evening at the home of Mrs. T. M. Foster with Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, Mrs. L. B. Dula, and Mrs. E. E. Pevette as associate hostesses. Miss Mable Hendren, chairman of American Citizenship, presented Dr. John T. Wayland, pastor of the North Wilkesboro First Baptist church, who made a most timely talk on "Citizenship In World Affairs".

In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. T. Long, the meeting was presided over by Mrs. Lawrence Miller, at which time a number of reports were heard. Mrs. Presley Myers gave a report on welfare work, stating that one child was being given lunch in the Wilkesboro school. The club voted to serve dinner this month to the Wilkesboro Business and Professional Men's club. Hostesses for the November meeting were announced as follows: Mesdames Joe Barber, Robert Gambill, F. C. Hubbard, and W. M. DeBerry.

Refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Wilkesboro Society Largely Attended

The showing of the religious film "Go Forth", featured the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Baptist Woman's Society held at the church Tuesday evening. The program and devotions, which included the picture, was arranged by members of Circle No. 2. Mrs. Robert Foster, the president, was in charge of the meeting, which was attended by twenty-four members and eleven visitors.

J. H. Whicker, Sr., Addresses Club Meet

Thirty-five members of the North Wilkesboro Senior Woman's club were present at their monthly meeting held at the Woman's clubhouse Monday afternoon to hear Attorney J. H. Whicker, Sr., address the club on "Legislation, and Your Part In It". Mrs. J. Floyd Woodward, program chairman, presented Mr. Whicker, who gave a most instructive talk. Mr. Whicker suggested steps women should take, having the right to vote, in order to have a better world in which to live, and pointed out to them where they as women have failed to take the advantage of opportunities given them. Women have been given the right to serve on the jury, yet when called they asked to be released, also our government will never improve as long as we have duplicate voting; that is, women voting the same ticket as their husbands. Women must think for

COMMISSIONER'S RE-SALE OF REAL ESTATE

By virtue of and under the authority contained in a certain order of the Superior Court of Wilkes County, made in the special proceedings entitled "Allen Dotson, administrator of the estates of Martin Dotson and Etta Dotson, deceased, and Allen Dotson et als vs. Mrs. Sam Dotson, widow, Juanita Ruth Dotson, Margaret Hazel Dotson, Jesse Donald Dotson, Samuel W. Dotson, Harvey Dotson, Thomas Dotson, John Earl Dotson, Geneva Dotson, Henry Martin, all being minors except Mrs. Sam Dotson, by their guardian ad litem, Stacy H. Jones", the same being No. 309SP5 upon the special proceedings docket of said court, the undersigned commissioners will, on the sixth day of Nov., 1948, it being Sat. at 12 o'clock, Noon, at the courthouse door in Wilkesboro, North Carolina, offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash that certain tract of land lying and being in Wilkesboro township, Wilkes county, North Carolina, adjoining the lands of Newborn Parker, Allen Dotson, Eva Glass and others, said lands being bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning on a stone, the northwest corner of Newborn Parker's lands, running south 2 1/2 deg. west 84 poles to a stone and oak on the bank of the old Salisbury road; thence north 34 deg. west with same 16 poles to the center of North Carolina Highway No. 115; thence north 88 deg. west with said Highway 19 poles to the point where a culvert crosses the Highway; thence north 4 1/2 deg. east with the branch to a bunch of poplars at the head of the branch, near a spring, continuing north 4 1/2 deg. east to a pine in the line of the 4-acre tract of Eva Glass, 89 1/2 poles in all; thence south 86 1/2 deg. east 10 poles to the branch in a hollow, her corner; thence north 3 deg. east with her line and the branch 23 1/2 poles to an iron stake in the line of Eva Glass; thence south 87 deg. east 28 poles with same to a large white oak, the corner of C. C. Wright land; thence south 2 1/2 deg. west with same 87 poles to a stone, his corner; thence south 72 deg. west with the Newborn Parker line 24 poles to the beginning, containing 25 1/2 acres, more or less, per survey by C. M. Elledge, dated December 18, 1947.

The bidding will start at $1,325.00, and the last and highest bidder will be required to make a deposit of 10 per cent of the last bid to show good faith, and unless said 10 per cent is deposited with the commissioners at the close of bidding, the lands will be resold immediately.

This October 21st, 1948.

J. H. WHICKER, Sr.,
10-11-26-(M) Commissioners.

themselves and help to elect christian men and women as leaders of the nation. There are more women voters than men, and it is time for the women to think the problems over and do something about them. The talk was well received and appreciated by the group.

During the business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Ivey Moore, plans were made for a buffet supper to be put on by the club members at the club house on Thursday evening, November 11, at 6:30 o'clock. A social hour followed the meeting during which time refreshments were served by the hostesses group composed of Mesdames Frank Tomlinson, J. Q. Adams, W. E. Jones, Fred Clark, Z. O. Eller, F. B. Hethcock, and Vernon Deal.

Mrs. James Hauser Society Hostess

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James Hauser with Mrs. James C. Mills, the president, in charge of the business session. A program on Alaska was presented by the members of the Franklin circle with Mrs. C. B. Lomax as the leader. Others taking part were Mrs. Hauser, Miss Ruth Colvard, Mrs. Jack Brame, and Miss Jo Lassiter. During the business period reports were heard and plans were discussed for the fall mission study class to be held the first Tuesday evening in November. Nineteen were present.

Special Program At First Methodist

A program for "The Week of Prayer and Self Denial" of the Woman's Society will be given at the First Methodist church Tuesday afternoon, October 26, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. Miss Jo Lassiter, leader for the service, is to be assisted by Mrs. Lewis Johnson, Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, Mrs. Palmer Horton, Mrs. Fred Clark, and Mrs. John Batty. Organ music will be furnished by Jay Anderson, and Miss Margaret Anderson will sing "Let There Be Light". The offering to be taken goes to centers in Texas, Virginia, and Alaska for the home field, and for four different projects in China.

Mrs. Joe Canter Entertains Her Club

Mrs. Joe Canter was hostess to the members of the Pastime bridge club at her home on C street Monday evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Johnson Sanders for top score, to Mrs. Shoun Kerbaugh for second high score, and to Mrs. Arthur Lowe for bingo. The salad course, served at the conclusion of play, and table appointments were suggestive of the Halloween motif.

Sub-District Meeting At Union Church

Approximately fifty young people were present for the Wilkes County Sub-district meeting held Monday evening at the Union Methodist church. The installation of the new officers, conducted by Miss Jo Lassiter, featured the program for the evening. Miss Margaret Anderson, of the North Wilkesboro church, accompanied at the piano by Jay Anderson, sang "The Lord Is My Light". Miss Ruth Long, the new president, was in charge of the business session. The recreation period and the refreshments, both in charge of the host church, carried suggestions of Halloween.

Duplin county turkey growers are producing only 26,000 birds this year as compared with 72,000 in 1946.

The introduction of Southland, a new home garden and market tomato that is resistant to collar rot and nearly immune to fusarium wilt, is announced by the USDA.

It's a NEW Navy!

"New fast carriers and super-speed subs make the equipment I remember look mighty tame. New jet planes and buzz bombs are performing wonders. And the Navy's research program is tops."
HENRY FONDA, Lieut., USNR
Serving in "Mr. Roberts"

"It's amazing—the wallop our Navy now packs! Submarines that stay under water for days! Carriers which speed jet bombers to their take-off point! Completely new radar equipment!"
GENE TUNNEY, Capt., USNR
Undeclared Heavyweight Champion

Here's a glimpse of Navy's new Super-carrier—a 65,000-ton flat-top, 1,080 feet long, with a crew of 4,000 officers and men. This great ship is designed to carry a new type jet bomber with greatly increased cruising range.

Navy's new submarine travels underwater faster than submarines ever did on top. They now can cruise submerged for days.

A guided missile is launched—Navy coordinates much research with other armed forces to prevent duplication of effort.

The Navy sponsors over 1,200 research projects at 200 university, government and industrial laboratories.

Coming—Still another Navy Contribution for war or peace—new airborne radar, an epoch-making advancement to safe air navigation!
