

Millers Creek Club In October Meeting
 Mrs. Paul Delp charmingly entertained the October gathering of Millers Creek Club women. Sixteen members were present. The little business for the month was to appropriate money to pay for a needy child's lunch at school, and to sell refreshments for the Hallowe'en program.

 Mrs. Greene gave one of the most interesting and most useful demonstrations of the entire year—that of refinishing furniture. If one has antiques or just ordinary pieces of good substantial furniture it may be made into lovely and valuable furniture by the correct, painstaking process described. Experience proves it a fascinating hobby as

Wesley Bible Class Met Tuesday Evening
 Around sixteen members were present for the monthly meeting of the Wesley Bible class of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. O. K. Pope with Miss Pansy Ferguson as associate hostess. The devotions and program were given by Miss Ferguson and Patsy Pope. Miss Ferguson, the retiring president, presided for the election of officers. Mrs. Thurmond Kenerly was named as president; Mrs. J. E. Doughton, vice president; Mrs. H. M. Bivens, secretary; and Miss Ferguson, treasurer. Refreshments were served during the social hour.

First Methodist To Have Study Class
 America's Geographical Frontiers, the fall mission study for the Woman's Society of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church is to be a presentation of the book "On our Own Doorstep", by Frank S. Mead. This book is a graphic introduction to the problems of the hour in Alaska, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, the Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands, sketched against the background of history and Christian concern. The class, to be held at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street Tuesday evening, November 2, beginning at six o'clock, is to have as instructors Mrs. Fred Clark, who will present the first half of the book, and Miss Mildred Bradford, a teacher in the city school. A buffet supper is to be served during the intermission. Members of the Woman's Society of the Friendship church at Millers Creek, of which Mrs. Hunt Eudally is president, are joining in with the class.
