Wishing You Merry And Safe Christmas

Every Christmas season is marred by horrible accidents which take a heavy toll in lives, suffering and property damage.

To keep your Christmas merry, and to make sure that you can enjoy life after Christmas, practice safety during the holiday season on the highways, hunting trips or whatever form of enjoyment and recreation you choose.

Use just a little extra care to protect yourself and others during the holiday season and don't gamble your life against a few minutes time. A taxi driver in New York City, with no accidents in 20 years driving, attributed his success to the fact that he drove his taxi as if every other driver was a crazy fool.

THE BLESSEDNESS OF CHRISTMAS
CHRIST: That always sounds good. There is no other time of the year, no other event, that means so much to us. Our minds go back to Bethlehem of Judea, to the manger, and to the shepherds that kept their flocks, and to the wonderful song of the angels, when we talk of Christmas, and when we celebrate the birth of our blessed Savior. We know that His birth meant more to the world than any other birth that has ever taken place, or ever will. He came as the only begotten Son of God to save us from all our sins, and to make it possible that we may live for God and reach heaven. Hallelujah! No wonder the angels sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." (Luke 2:14) No wonder the shepherds left their flocks and went to Bethlehem, and to the manger, to find and worship Jesus.

CHRISTMAS: To many of us we think back across the years when we were children in the old home, when father and mother living, and when we were happy in the unbroken family circle, talking of and getting ready for Christmas. We think of the blazing fire in the great fireplace, of the good things mother prepared for us to eat, and of how we hung up our stockings on Christmas eve for Santa Claus to fill them that night. We could hardly wait until morning came to see what our stockings on Christmas eve for Santa Claus were at Christmas time to candy, nuts, apples, cakes and pies, and to say to one another, "Christmas gift!" Well, to many of us these days are long in the past. Father and mother have gone to meet Jesus, our brothers and sisters are scattered here and there, and maybe some of them have crossed the bar, and the old home has disappeared, or seems so, different. Maybe today our eyes are dim with tears as we think of those far off days in the past when our hearts were young and gay, and when it seemed so long from one Christmas to another.

However, it is sweet and comforting to think of the time when we shall meet our loved ones who have gone before, and there look upon the blessed Babe of Bethlehem who is now Lord of lords and King of kings sing and shout His praises forever, and be like Him. Hallelujah! Soon the blessedness of Christmas will end in the blessedness of glory with God's saints.
