

Richard Walter Gwyn

A humble, modest gentleman, whose heart was big enough to hold in affection all his fellow-men; a man who knew so well and exemplified so richly the meaning of true friendship; a man who loved his work so much that he disliked holidays unless they gave him opportunity for an outing in God's great open spaces; a genial, friendly man who had a contagious and refreshing sense of humor; a noble and useful citizen who has left an abiding and tremendously valuable heritage to this community where he lived out the full years of his mature manhood; a great and exemplary Christian who lived his faith in every relationship of life;—that was Richard Walter Gwyn, our friend and neighbor, who, on the evening of December twenty-fourth, slipped away into the larger room of life.

Our language seems so hopelessly weak when we attempt to record our sense of loss and sadness at his passing. To his family, whose loss and loneliness is so much greater than our own, we extend sincere assurance of sympathy and affection.

His life was so vital and so vigorous; his spirit so buoyant with good humor and optimism, that it is very hard for us to think of him as dead. Indeed, he is not dead; he has but turned a corner in the road men travel, who make themselves worthy of immortality,—and passed out of our sight for a little while.

We think the message of his life to us is quite well expressed by Robert Service:

Carry on! Carry on!
Fight the good fight and true;
Believe in your mission, greet life with a cheer;
There is good work to do, that's why you are here.
Carry on! Carry on!
Let the world be the better for you;
And at last when you die, let this be your cry:
Carry on, my soul! Carry on!
Sincerely submitted,
GILBERT R. COMBS,

Requirements For Tobacco Allotment For New Growers

H. C. Roberts, chairman of the Wilkes County AAA, calls attention of farmers interested in securing "new grower" tobacco allotments to the following requirements. First, and most important, the producer must have had two years experience in growing flue-cured tobacco during the past five years, either as a share-cropper or tenant. Second, a barn or curing capacity for the crop must be available. Third, the applicant must have sufficient help to house the tobacco crop.

Applications are being filed in the county office daily and if you are interested and meet the above requirements, or desire further information, give this your immediate attention, as February 1, has been set as the deadline.

Former 4-H'er Is Good Seller On Club Market

One of the most popular sellers on the Tarboro curb market is a former Negro 4-H Club member, Mrs. Julia Lee Kearney Jones, reports F. D. Wharton, Edgecombe County Negro farm agent for the State College Extension Service.

Mrs. Jones began selling on the market last May. On three Saturdays during that month, her sales totaled $17.88. Her monthly totals from June to October were $40.56, $52.62, $40, $93, $47.46, and $55.29—a total of $254.34 during the six-month period.

Late in the summer Mrs. Jones decided to sell cakes and cookies. Before attempting to do so, however, she went to see her home demonstration agent to obtain information on how to bake good cookies and cakes.

After several visits to the home agent's demonstration kitchen, Mrs. Jones began selling very good bakery products. Sales of her cakes and cookies for three Saturdays during October brought her $10.30.

Mrs. Jones also specializes in dressed chickens, Jelly, and preserves. She was the top seller on the market during October.

The Tar Heel sweet potato crop during the past season was the smallest since 1924.
