Taylor-Horton Vows Spoken In California

The wedding of Miss Shirley Taylor and William Franklin Horton was solemnized on Wednesday evening, December 22, at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist church, of Hollywood, California. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Taylor, of Los Angeles. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Horton, of Carpinteria, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Franklin, descendants of Carpinteria Valley Pioneers. The groom's paternal grandparents were the late Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Horton, of North Wilkesboro, N. C. where he formerly lived with his parents.

Following the singing of Malotte's, "Lord's Prayer," the bridal party entered Bett's chapel to traditional wedding music. The altar was banked with white chrysanthemums and gladioli and lighted with burning tapers. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Miss Nancy Kelley as maid of honor. Other bridal attendants were Miss Marilyn Raymond and Miss Janet Kelley, Alpha Gamma Delta sorority sisters, and Miss Pat Thornburgh, of Bakersville, cousin of the bride. They wore identical white moire taffeta gowns and carried American Beauty roses.

For her wedding the bride wore white satin. The gown, fashioned with a headed pearl neckline and long sleeves, had a full skirt and train attached to the fitted bodice with a corded, scalloped yoke. Her fingertip veil fell from a pearl coronet, and her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of three white orchids, surrounded by carnations.

Dr. Lowell Miller was best man for the groom, and the ushers were Wayne Taylor, brother of the bride, Phillip Robbins, of Durham, N. C. cousin of the bridegroom, and Joe Hook, of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Taylor, mother of the bride, chose an aqua dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Horton, mother of the groom, wore rose grey with matching accessories and a pink hat. Both had orchid corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, with sorority sisters of the bride as hostesses, after which the bridal couple left on a brief wedding trip to Colorado. For travel the bride changed to a green wool suit with black accessories, and pinned at her shoulder the orchids from her bridal bouquet.

The young couple are now at home in Pittsburgh, Pa., where Mr. Horton is with the engineering department of Westinghouse Electric Corporation. He holds his Masters Degree in electrical engineering from the California Institute of Technology, and was in military service three years, spending some time as engineering officer on a tanker in the Pacific.

The bride attended the University of California at Los Angeles, and was an art major.
