SPORTS BRIEFS

Rural high schools should have been taking advantage of the May weather in January for conditioning of boys for baseball. There are several schools now with athletic fields. . . . One of the reasons for popularity of basketball as a high school sport is the low cost of operation. Once a gymnasium is completed, cost of equipment, transportation, etc., is not prohibitive. . . . Softball is gaining in popularity as an intra-mural sport, but will never become exciting from a spectator's standpoint because there's no thrill in hearing the bat thud against an object.

Baseball fans who are in a hurry to learn what players from last year will return to the professional team here are reminded that the team must have eight rookies, which are first year men, and can only have three with over three years' experience and only four others with one year experience. That would mean that a maximum of seven of last year's players could be on the squad of 15. A class man is a player with as much as three years experience, and that is the way leagues are classed. Class D usually allows three class men. When you get up high as Class B all players can be class men. Class D and C require a certain number of rookies per team.

Some of the best high school players we saw last year were on the Sparta team, and this year several of them will graduate. Professional teams and colleges will be after them. . . . Bill Craig, who played at Wilkesboro and is now at Appalachian, may have a baseball career. . . . In Wilkes county there is sufficient baseball talent among boys for a winning American Legion Junior baseball team. Let's help get some of it out this year, and try to encourage more sandlot play in every community.

N. Wilkesboro And Millers Creek Split

North Wilkesboro girls, showing steady improvement in every game, defeated Millers Creek girls 32 to 25 in a thriller Friday night at Millers Creek, but the North Wilkesboro boys lost a half time lead of 11 points and were defeated in the second half by a spirited Millers Creek team 37 to 34.

North Wilkesboro girls jumped into an early lead, which they held throughout. Betty Whicker's point making was outstanding for the winners and Rachel Robinson with 14 led both teams in scoring. North Wilkesboro boys, after leading 24 to 13 at half time, scored only three points in the third period, which ended with the score tied 27-27.
