Wilkes Chamber Directors Meeting Held For Month

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors was held in the chamber of commerce office with President R. M. Brame, Jr., presiding, Jan. 18.

The manager referred to correspondence from Harry Kruss, of the Winston-Salem Chamber, in connection with the southern meeting of chambers of commerce in Winston-Salem the last of March. It was pointed out that the plan to have the delegates make a trip into the western part of the state had been eliminated because of the possibility of delegates arriving late and hazardous weather at that season.

The board was asked by the president if it wished to receive the legislative bulletin of the 1949 General Assembly at a cost of $15.00, and an additional $1.00 per week for extra weeks. The board approved this subscription.

The manager presented information regarding the proposal of a candidate for the U. S. Chamber of Commerce board of directors. The board felt that this community should be recognized in this connection and should participate in making a nomination. R. G. Finley made a motion that the board go on record proposing J. B. Williams as a nominee for the Board of Directors of the U. S. Chamber. This was seconded by J. B. Carter and passed.

President Brame brought up the following legislative matters for action: (1) Regarding the Wage-Hour Act S.248, the board approved action already taken by the president and manager whereby the State Labor Committee and the N. C. senators had been urged to request full hearings on S.248 regarding increasing minimum wages and clarifying amendments. The manager presented information regarding the request of the N. C. Ports Authority in which the legislature is asked to appropriate approximately 7 1-2 million for modern docks, transit sheds and warehouses at Morehead City and Wilmington, N. C. Although opposed to extravagant spending of state funds, the board felt that development of state ports is important to our whole economy. The board went on record favoring the request of the State Ports Authority and asked that our local representative be notified of this decision.

The manager stated that Representatives C. B. Deane and R. L. Doughton had notified local representatives regarding the establishment of a highway post office to begin Feb. 4. It was agreed that a brief ceremony be arranged in North Wilkesboro at the time the highway post office makes its first arrival here.

President Brame appointed the Executive Committee composed of Big Williams, Vernon Deal, Joe Barber, Richard Johnston, Tom Jenrette and himself to prepare and recommend a 1949 budget for presentation in the first meeting of the new board in February.

Oliver Richardson Funeral On Saturday

Funeral service was held Saturday, two p. m., at Round Hill Baptist church for Oliver F. Richardson, 77, well known resident of Traphill township who died Thursday. Rev. L. E. Sparks and Rev. Troy Blevins officiated.

Surviving Mr. Richardson are one son and three daughters: C. E. Richardson, Greensboro; Mrs. Roy Alexander, Roaring River; Mrs. Ray Lankford, North Wilkesboro; Mrs. B. C. Jordan, Lomax.

Estimates on the 1948 corn now place the State average at 31 bushels per acre. Total production was about 69 million bushels.

Martin Begins 12-Year Term

South Boston, Va., Jan. 18.—Two men paroled from prison sentences in North Carolina on murder convictions today began serving 12 years in Virginia for robbery and possessing burglary tools.

Summerfield Martin, 48, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and Joseph Stafford, 38, of Sparta, N. C., pleaded guilty here yesterday to charges of robbing the safe of an automobile company at Halifax. Police in North Carolina and Virginia sought them following the robbery last Dec. 9. They were captured in South Boston, just over the North Carolina line, three days later.

Half a dozen other robbery charges also face them in Virginia.

Two Eggs Over 3 Times Normal Size

C. W. Proffit, of the Goshen community, here Friday was showing two unusually large eggs. Total weight of the two eggs from New Hampshire hens was three-quarters of a pound, with one tipping the scales at six and one-half ounces. A two-ounce egg is considered normal. Mr. Proffit is planning a display of hen eggs from tiny to giant size.
