Campaign Well Under Way To Raise Goal of $10,000 In Current Drive

Campaign to raise $12,000 in Wilkes county for the infantile paralysis campaign is now in full swing and every effort should be put forth this week, Sam Ogilvie, campaign chairman, said today.

The $12,000 goal will be less than half the amount spent for Wilkes cases during the year 1948. In addition to all funds the local chapter of the Foundation had on hand, the National Foundation has advanced $25,000 to Wilkes county.

Here are listed the cases, ages and addresses of the Wilkes cases during the past year:
