Mrs. W. K. Newton Entertains Her Club

The members of the Round Table Book club were entertained by Mrs. W. K. Newton at her home on the Brushy Mountain Friday afternoon. Following a dessert course bridge was played at two tables. Mrs. Ivey Moore received the top score prize, and Mrs. Vernon Deal, visitor of the club, the low score award. The traveler's prize went to Mrs. Rufus Church. The group made an exchange of books, and were shown over the home, which has been redecorated, and additions made.

Mrs. Moore Attends Church Meeting

Mrs. Ivey Moore attended an executive meeting of the officers of the Statesville district of the Methodist Women's Society held Monday at the home of Mrs. W. L. Lazenby near Statesville. Mrs. Lazenby is secretary of supplies for the district. At the meeting plans were made for the year's work, including the sub-district meetings to be held. Mrs. Moore, chairman of sub-district No. 1, extended invitation for the meeting to be held here in the First Methodist church, Wednesday, April 13.

Mrs. L. A. Hauser T. E. L. Class Hostess

Mrs. L. A. Hauser was hostess to the members of the T. E. L. class of the First Baptist church held Tuesday evening at her home on F Street. Mrs. C. C. Kilby led the opening prayer after which the group sang "Blest Be the Tie". Mrs. W. F. Jones conducted the devotional period, and Mrs. C. G. Myers, the vice president, was in charge of the business session. Thirteen members were present and were served refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. Bowen Feted At Winston-Salem

Elkin.—Mrs. William T. Roth of Elkin and Mrs. Robert Bowen of Winston-Salem jointly entertained at an afternoon tea on Saturday in Winston-Salem, as a postnuptial courtesy to Mrs. Raymond S. Bowen who before her wedding last month was Miss Joanna McNeill of North Wilkesboro. In the receiving line were the hostesses, the honoree and Mrs. Archie McNeill of North Wilkesboro. Miss Mattie Mae Powell of Elkin, poured tea; Mrs. Alvin Bowen presided at the register and sisters of the bride assisted in serving the 125 guests who called.

Woman's Bible Class In Monthly Meeting

Fourteen members were present for the monthly meeting of the Woman's Bible class of the First Methodist church held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Isaac Eller on Tenth Street with Mrs. J. M. Crawford as associate hostess. Mrs. Edd F. Gardner led the opening devotions followed by a skit given by Mesdames W. F. Gaddy, Gilbert R. Combs, and Mrs. Crawford.

Mrs. Eller, the new president, was in charge of the business session during which time she appointed a number of committees, and distributed names for "Big Sisters" again this year. It was announced that the February meeting would be held with Mrs. Gaddy.

During the social hour the hostesses served strawberry shortcake with coffee.

Miss Grace Roland Entertains Her Club

A delightful club party of the week was the one given by Miss Grace Roland Friday evening, entertaining for the members of the Idle Hours club at the home of Miss Mae Foster on Kensington Drive. Bridge was played at three tables with a dessert course preceding play. Mrs. Arnold Davis, the former Miss Joyce Kilby, was welcomed into the club as a new member.

Presbyterian Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

Twenty-eight members attended the January meeting of the Presbyterian Auxiliary held Tuesday evening in the assembly room of the educational building. Mrs. T. A. Finley, the president, to open the meeting read a poem "I Met the Master" and led in a short prayer. A number of reports were heard during the business session.

Mrs. W. J. Bason, program chairman, directed a most helpful program on the thought, bringing the outside in the home. Mrs. Ralph Buchan gave the meditation on devotions in the home, and those making short talks, which included some community activities, were Mesdames E. G. Finley, J. S. Zimmerman, Cecil Adamson, and R. G. Finley.
