

Bluejackets Defeat Cover Girls 64-59

Eller's Bluejackets defeated the glamorous New York Cover Girls 64 to 59 in a basketball exhibition Monday night before a capacity crowd in Wilkesboro gymnasium.

The pretty visitors played a remarkable style of basketball for the weaker sex but were out-classed on the court by the Bluejackets. However, the Cover Girls did set a record for number of points scored by a girls' team in this locality.

During half-time festivities pretty Audrey Erickson displayed her athletic versatility with exhibitions in football punting and drop-kicking (barefooted and with basketball shoes), baseball and softball. English and Florreich presented a pitching and catching baseball show while Dot Whalen shot nine out of 10 free throws.
