Miss Patsy Hadley Honored At Party

Miss Mary Caroon entertained at a bridge party at her home on C Street Wednesday afternoon honoring Miss Patsy Hadley, bride-elect of February. Three tables were arranged for the game in spring-like setting of yellow forsythia, and at Miss Hadley's place was a corsage of pink carnations. Top score prize in the game went to Mrs. A. L. Brzostowski, and Mrs. Harry, Het-tiger was the winner in bingo. Refreshments followed play.

The guests showered the honoree, who is to wed Bradley Davis, of this city, with miscellaneous gifts, while Miss Caroon's gift to her was a set of china. An out of town guest at the party was Mrs. Lee Deal, of Hickory, formerly Miss Dot Summers, of this city.

Mrs. J. Q. Adams Bridge Club Hostess

The members of the Es-Along club, and a trio of visitors, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. Q. Adams at her home on F Street Monday evening. In serving a dessert course at the beginning of a game of bridge, played at three tables, the hostess was aided by Mrs. Bill Phillips, a guest of the club. High and second high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. Fred Clark and Mrs. Cleve Beshears, and Mrs. Lewis Johnson was the winner in bingo.

Miss Betty Gray Church, student at Wake Forest College home for the week-end, and Mrs. Ralph Church, also of Wake Forest, out of town visitors of the club, were remembered with gifts.

Kilby-Davis Vows Solemnized

Miss Joyce Kilby, daughter of Mrs. Cyrus C. Kilby, and the late Mr. Kilby, of North Wilkesboro, became the bride of Mr. Arnold Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Davis, of Chattanooga, Tennessee. The ceremony was performed January fifth at the Simpson Memorial Church, Rossville, Georgia, with Rev. W. C. Martin, pastor of the groom, officiating.

Miss Lucy Finley D. A. R. Hostess

The January meeting of the Rendezvous Mountain chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Lucy Finley on E Street. Mrs. Gordon Finley, the regent, was in charge of the business session, and Miss Elizabeth Finley gave the program.

During the business session delegates were elected to attend the State Convention to be held in Asheville the first of March and are as follows: Mesdames C.

Don Coffey, Jr., J. N. Phillips, and Miss Lucy Finley, with the following as alternates, Mesdames Joe E. Johnson, W. R. Absher, and Russell G. Hodges. The regent's alternate for the Continental Congress to be held in April at Washington, D. C. is Mrs. Absher.

For the program Miss Finley gave an interesting talk on the American Indian, and had on display some Indian relics found in this community. During the social hour a tea course was served in the dining room with tea being poured by Mrs. Finley. Red carnations and red gladioli were used about the home for decorations.

Glass-Sheek Vows Solemnized Saturday

Miss Laura Catherine Glass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Glass, Sr., of Wilkesboro, became the bride of Nelson Glenn Sheek, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Sheek, of Yadkinville, at three o'clock, Saturday afternoon, January 28, at the Edgewood Baptist church, Wilkesboro. Rev. A. E. Watts, pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ceremony. Cathedral candles in candelabra were arranged against a background of greenery and baskets of white gladioli.

A prelude of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. R. E. Prevette, organist, and Miss Ruby Wilson, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a beaded crown. She carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid, and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Carol Glass, sister of the bride and maid of honor, wore a rose taffeta dress fashioned with a fitted bodice. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers.

Best man for the bridegroom was his brother, Roy Sheek, of Yadkinville. Ushers were C. G. Glass, Jr., of Wilkesboro, brother of the bride, and Billy Sheek of Yadkinville, cousin of the groom.

For a wedding trip to Florida the bride wore a suit of grey gabardine with black accessories and the orchid from her prayer book. Upon their return the couple will be at home in Yadkinville.

Mrs. Sheek graduated from the Wilkesboro high school and attended Draughtons Business College. She is employed in the office of Western Electric Company, Winston-Salem. Mr. Sheek graduated from the Yadkinville high school and completed a course in electricity and refrigeration in Chicago. He is now employed at Southern Dairies, Inc. Experiments in chemical weed control in cotton are now being conducted in Mississippi by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Martin County 4-H Club boys participating in the 1948 corn growing contest averaged 75.9 bushels per acre as compared with an overall county yield of about 30 bushels per acre.
