

Julius C. Martin, Native Of Wilkes, Funeral Feb. 12

Funeral service for Julius C. Martin, retired special assistant to the United States Attorney General, were held Saturday morning, February 12, in the Chevy Chase Baptist church, Chevy Chase, Md. Burial was in Rock Creek cemetery in Washington, D. C. The last rites were attended by many of the notables of the nation's capital.

Mr. Martin died early February 9, after a year of declining health and several weeks' serious illness. He had retired from the Department of Justice in October, 1947. From Thursday morning until Saturday his body lay in state at his home, 6520 Western Avenue, Chevy Chase.

Son of Capt. Augustus Harrison Martin, C. S. A., who was killed three days before Lee surrendered; and Susan Virginia Corpening Martin, Julius Martin was born October 2, 1861 at the old James and Augustus Martin home on the Yadkin, opposite Roaring River. In early life he attended the Dellaplane school in Antioch township and Oak Hill Academy in Grayson County, Virginia. In the early eighties he attended University of North Carolina and organized a fraternity there, later merged with Beta Theta Pi. He was also a student of Col. George N. Folk's law school on the Upper Yadkin and was graduated from it in 1888.

Before beginning the practice of law, Mr. Martin taught briefly in Wilkes; at Cove Creek, Watauga county; and in Tennessee. Going to Asheville in 1888, he was engaged in the practice of law first with Judge Gudgeon and later with Thomas S. Rollins and George H. Wright in the law firm of Martin, Rollins and Wright. He was also mayor and city attorney of Asheville. He lived in Asheville from 1888 to 1924 and also in 1932-33.

In 1911 he represented Buncombe in the State Senate and in 1933 in the State House of Representatives. He was author of the Martin Act and the State Bar Act. After serving briefly as attorney for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, Mr. Martin was, in 1934, made special assistant to the U. S. Attorney General, serving until 1947. From 1936 to 1942 he was Director of the Bureau of War Risk Litigation, U. S. Department of Justice. He was a lawyer for 61 years.

From childhood Mr. Martin was a member of the Baptist church, having first joined Old Brier Creek church in Wilkes. He is survived by his widow, Helen Emilie Werres, whom he married in 1891; three sons, Col. Harrison A. Martin, Red Bank, N. J.; Attorney Julius Martin, Jr., Washington, D. C.; and Norman F. Martin, Chevy Chase, Md.; six grandchildren; and one half sister, Mrs. Celia M. Lane, of Washington and North Wilkesboro.

Julius C. Martin was a brother of the late Dr. J. Everett Martin and a half brother of the late David B. and T. Frank Mastin, all of Bluefield, W. Va. He was also a brother of the late Mrs. Laura Martin Linney and a half brother of the late Mrs. N. T. Jarvis, both of Roaring River, Route 2. Mr. Martin was an uncle of Miss Ruth Linney, Mrs. J. L. Mathis, Mrs. Lois Jarvis Roberts, Noah Jarvis, Jr., of Roaring River Route 2, and of Mrs. Turner Church of Boomer.

All cases in which the defendants are in jail are subject to be called at any time regardless of where the case appears on the calendar.

Let's get Down to Earth about DIAMONDS SHALL WE?

A man in love has his head in the clouds and is filled with romantic thoughts.

But, for the moment, let's get down to earth and discuss the matter; without its romantic aspect for your own sake.

A diamond is a simple article of measurable value... to an expert. But only to an expert. To the average person like yourself, it is an unknown quantity and you must rely to a great extent on your jeweler's word for its value.

To boil it down even further, regardless of the apparent beauty and size of the diamond you select, it is pretty much up to your jeweler whether you get your money's worth or not.

So you can see right here that selecting your jeweler carefully implies the selection of the diamond ring.

Look at it this way. We, being experts, choose our diamonds with real "know-how". We price them in accordance with our costs. Then we sell them with the knowledge that we intend to be in business for a long time. We guarantee them unconditionally... your money back in 30 days. Most of our customers are sent in or brought in by other customers we have had the satisfying experience of dealing with us.

We do not promise "miracles" or "bargains" ... "or diamonds by rocket from Mars". But we do promise your full dollar's worth and we're sure you're not looking for more.
