Mrs. William Barber Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. William Barber was hostess to the members of her bridge club at her home in Wilkesboro Wednesday evening. Following dinner served at seven o'clock bridge was played at two tables with the top score prize going to Mrs. Joe Barber. Miss Betsy Barber, home for the spring holidays from Woman's College in Greensboro, assisted her mother in the serving of the dinner.

Mrs. Darlington T. E. L. Class Hostess

Sixteen members were present for the monthly meeting of the T.E.L. class of the First Baptist church held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Mattie Darlington. Mrs. John Joines, the president, led the devotions, and the prayer was offered by Mrs. W. F. Jones. For the program a recording was given of one of Dr. Paul Caudill's sermons, "Hell, and why he did not want to go there." Mrs. Joines was in charge of the business session. Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the meeting.

Wilabri Club Met With Mrs. Garwood

The members of the Wilabri bridge club, and some extra guests, were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Albert Garwood at her home in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Three tables were arranged for the game in a colorful Easter setting, and at the close of play the hostess served refreshments. Top score prize for club members went to Mrs. Edson Norman, and for the visitors to Mrs. Robert Gambill. Mrs. Tom Story was the winner in bingo.

Mrs. W. A. Hardister Entertains At Bridge

Two tables of bridge were in play Friday afternoon, when Mrs. W. A. Hardister entertained at her home for the members of the Round Table club. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. W. K. Newton for high score, to Mrs. Fred Emerson for low score, and Mrs. Ray Hoover bingo. The dessert course served at the beginning of play, and decorations carried suggestions of the Easter season. Mrs. D. L. Crook was a visitor of club.

Mrs. Watt M. Cooper Book Club Hostess

Mrs. Watt M. Cooper was gracious hostess to the members of the Friday Book club at her home on E Street Friday afternoon. Mrs. John T. Wayland, the president, presided while roll call was made by Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, members responding with interesting news items. At the close of the afternoon the hostess served tempting refreshments.

Clark-Tolbert Vows Solemnized Saturday

In a lovely home ceremony, marked by its simplicity, Miss Jamie Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Clark, of Millers Creek, became the bride of Jimmy Jason Tolbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. K. Tolbert, also of Millers Creek, on Saturday evening, April the second. Rev. A. E. Watts, of Taylorsville, a former pastor of the bride, officiated using the double ring ceremony. The vows were spoken at eight o'clock before an improvised altar arranged with white candles in seven-branched candelabra, baskets of white snapdragons, and greenery. Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Fred Clark, pianist, and Mrs. Wake Clark, soloist, who sang "Because" (d'Hardelot), "I Love Thee" (Grieg), and "Through the Years" (Youman). The couple entered together, unattended, to the strains of Lohegrins bridal chorus, and as they made their pledge the pianist sounded muted notes of "Claire de Lune."

For her nuptials the bride wore a navy blue suit, white lace blouse, and a white orchid. Her only ornament was a lavalier worn by her mother on her wedding day. Immediately following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at an informal reception for the bridal party, and wedding guests composed chiefly of family members. The bride and groom, graduates of Millers Creek high school are employed in North Wilkesboro. Mrs. Tolbert with the Penney's Store, and Mr. Tolbert with the Carolina-Home and Auto Supply company. They will make their home at Millers Creek.

The Reception
For the reception the dining room table, spread with an imported white lace cloth, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. White flowers and candles decorated the table, and were used elsewhere about the home. After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, it was finished by Miss Mary Hester Clark, and assisting with the serving were Misses Shirley and Kate Clark, all three sisters of the bride, and Miss Wanda Hayes.

Dale Church Has Birthday Party

Last Saturday afternoon, Dale Church, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Church, was honored at a party at the home of his parents, celebrating his sixth birthday.

Numerous games and contests were enjoyed by the group of children present, with prizes going to Janice Miller, Patty Miller and Sylvia Church. Dale received many practical gifts from his little friends. After the candles, which topped the birthday cake, were blown out by the honoree, Mrs. Church had the assistance of Mrs. Dick Thompson and Mrs. Edd Bumgarner in serving the cake, ice cream and lemonade to the children. For favors each guest was presented an Easter Basket Bunny.

Music Lovers Club In Two Meetings

The Junior group of the Music Lovers club was entertained by Gladys Sebastian at her home on E Street. Betty Wells, the president, presided, and Ginnie Brame, program chairman, directed the program, which included a number of piano solos. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. L. Sebastian, in serving refreshments during the social hour.

The Juvenile group met at the home of Linda Godby with Linda Howell and Rita Summers as co-hostesses. Jessica Marrow presided for the meeting, and Ann Hoover was in charge of the program. A number of the children played piano solos. Mrs. Joe Godby assisted the hostess trio in serving refreshments. Both meetings were well attended.

Mrs. Clark Entertains Her Two Clubs

Two delightful club parties were given during the week by Mrs. Fred Clark at her home on Ninth Street. On Thursday evening the guests included the members of the Sans Souci club, who played bridge at three tables. High and second high score prizes were won by Mrs. A. H. Clark and Mrs. O. E. Triplett.

Guests for Friday evening were the members of the Ex-Along club. High and second high score prize in the game of bridge, played at three tables, went to Mrs. Lewis Johnson and Mrs. Rufus B. Church. Mrs. Presley Myers received the bingo award. At each party a salad course with sweets was served during the evening, and the table appointments and decorations emphasized the Easter motif.
