Miss Vivian Kerbaugh Is Bride Of Kenneth David Greene

The wedding of Miss Vivian Louise Kerbaugh and Kenneth David Greene, of Boone, was solemnized in an impressive ceremony conducted here Sunday afternoon, April 10, at four o'clock in the First Baptist church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Kerbaugh, of this city, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Granville Clingham Greene, of Clingman. Dr. John T. Wayland, the pastor, officiated using the double ring ceremony. Seven-branched candelabra with gleaming white tapers and baskets of white glad-oli were arranged with a background of fern and palms.

Wedding music was provided by Mr. Rodney Trueblood, of Elizabeth City and Davidson College, organist; and Miss Martha Ellen Barr, Elizabeth City, as soloist. Following a prelude of nuptial music by the organist, Miss Barr sang, "Because", "Beloved, It is Morn", and closed the ceremony with "the Lord's Prayer". The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had for her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Doris Ruth Kerbaugh; and as bridesmaids another sister, Mrs. Thomas Lee Caudill, and Miss Elizabeth Hutchens, of Elizabeth City.

Best man for the groom was his brother, Mr. R. B. Greene, of Raleigh; and ushers were George Greene, Boone; Graham Greene, of Elkin, also brothers of the groom; Lynn Kerbaugh, Wake Forest, and Glynn Kerbaugh, of Bowling Green, Kentucky, both brothers of the bride.

The bride's wedding gown of white bridal satin was fashioned with a marquisette yoke, corded bertha, and fitted bodice scalloped and corded at low waistline. The sleeves were pointed over the hands, and the skirt of unpressed pleats ended in a short train. The double veil of bridal illusion, finertip length, fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with gardenias, and wore a lavalier belonging to her mother.

All the attendants were gowned in white taffeta dresses made with fitted bodices and full skirts. They wore single strands of pearls and carried arm bouquets of red roses, and had arrangements of red rosebuds and white net in their hair.

Mrs. Kerbaugh, mother of the bride, wore a spring print dress with purple gloves and black accessories. Mrs. Greene, mother of the groom, was dressed in a navy suit with matching accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias.

After the ceremony, the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to southern points, and upon their return will be at home at 130 Blowing Rock Road, Boone. For travel, the bride changed to a navy blue dress, gray coat, with which she used accessories. Her hat was orchid-pink and she pinned at her shoulder the gardenias from her Bible.

The bride, a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school, following graduation from Wake Forest College, was director of religious education at the First Baptist church in Elizabeth City for about a year. The groom graduated from Ronda high school and attended the Appalachian State Teachers College at Boone. He is now engaged in business in Boone.

The Rehearsal Party

On Saturday evening following the rehearsal Mrs. Thomas Lee Caudill, Miss Doris Ruth Kerbaugh, and Mrs. Shoun Kerbaugh, sisters and sister-in-law of the bride, entertained at a rehearsal party at the Caudill home honoring the members of the wedding party. Other guests included family members and out of town guests attending the wedding. The dining table, spread with a white cloth, was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, about which four white candles gleamed. Apple blossoms and ivy predominated in decorations throughout the home. The bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, then it was finished by Mrs. Cleve Beshears. Lime ice was poured by Mrs. Shoun Kerbaugh. Approximately fifty guests were present.

Miss Vivian Kerbaugh Extended Courtesies

A number of interesting courtesies were given during the week to honor Miss Vivian Kerbaugh, who on Sunday was married to Kenneth Greene, of Boone. The wedding took place at four o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist church.

To begin the series of courtesies Miss Grace Roland was hostess at a dinner party at the Carolina Restaurant last Saturday evening honoring both, the bride and groom. A three course dinner was served at seven o'clock with covers laid for eight. Yellow and white flowers and white candles formed the centerpiece, and at each place was a yellow rosebud with place card attached.

On Tuesday evening Miss Beth Jones entertained at cards at her home on D Street for Miss Kerbaugh and another bride-elect, Miss Billie Barnes. Bridge and rook, played at four tables, was preceded by a dessert course. Prizes for high and low scores in bridge were won by Mrs. Shoun Kerbaugh and Miss Barnes, and in rook the winners were Miss Fannie Ruth Kilby and Miss Kerbaugh. Each honoree was given a corsage of white carnations and silver in her pattern, and Mrs. Fred Davis, a newcomer to Wilkesboro, was remembered with a gift. The home was decorated with mixed spring flowers.

A Come-and-Sit tea was given for Miss Kerbaugh Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. R. T. McNeil and Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant at the McNeil home on Sixth Street. Another honor guest, was Miss Billie Barnes, bride-elect of Livingston Johnson, of Winston-Salem. Around fifteen guests came at four-thirty o'clock, and during the hour were served a tea course from the dining room table, tea being poured by Mrs. John T. Wayland. The hostesses' gifts for the honorees were corsages of white flowers, and china in their patterns. Mrs. Bob Day, daughter of Mrs. McNeil, assisted with the serving. The table, spread with a white cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white candles and white snapdragons. Apple blossoms were used in the living room.

Friday evening Miss Kerbaugh, with several friends from North Wilkesboro, went to Elkin for a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Graham Greene. Bridge, rook, and rummy was played at four tables, in which a number of prizes were awarded. An ice course, in the bridal colors, was served the guests on arrival. The bride's place was marked with a corsage of white flowers, and she received a shower of lovely gifts from the group. Lilac blossoms and white candles were used for decorations, and tally cards carried bridal designs.
