

Pores Knob H. D. Club Enjoys Demonstration

Thirty members of the Pores Knob Home Demonstration club were present at the Community House, Friday, May 13, 2 p. m., for the helpful demonstration on "Food Preparation for the Freezer Locker," given by the Assistant Home Agent, Miss Ruth Thompson. She showed many different types of containers for frozen foods, giving the advantages and disadvantages of each kind. Snap beans were prepared and packed ready for the locker. She gave helpful instructions on how to select and prepare many foods such as strawberries, cherries, corn, beans, and meats to be frozen and showed many different utensils that are helpful in preparing the foods and filling the containers.

The devotionals for the meeting consisted of the opening prayer by the president, Mrs. J. M. Bentley, scripture reading by Mrs. C. M. Ashley, singing of "The Old North State," led by Mrs. M. D. Lowe, and the repeating in concert of the club collect. The secretary, Mrs. W. C. Anderson, read the minutes and called the roll, which was answered by giving our score on food habits. The treasurer, Mrs. W. R. Parlier, gave the treasury report. Mrs. Edmon Edsel read a poem, "My Tree Lady." Our clothing leader, Mrs. Jim Frazier, gave us some information on storing woolsens and moth prevention.

During the business period Mrs. Bentley gave the list of committees appointed by the officers and recreational leader to help with the spring reception to be given for the young people in honor of our high school graduates, which will be given by the club sometime in June.

During the social hour a corsage of white roses was pinned on Mrs. Dovie Joiner for being the oldest member present and a clump of Dutch Iris was presented Mrs. Ruth Davis for being the youngest member present. A large bottle of furniture polish went to Mrs. Russel Brookshire for the lucky number. A contest was conducted and Mrs. Hazel Lowe won first prize and Mrs. B. M. Broyhill, Mrs. D. S. Broyhill, and Mrs. Ruth Davis tied for second. After delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. W. C. Anderson and Mrs. W. R. Parlier, Mrs. Davis was presented a lovely shower by the club. Mrs. L. P. Bentley and Mrs.

N. C. Craven will be hostesses for the June meeting and request that you make your plans now to attend.—Reported by Mrs. J. M. Bentley.

Dellaplane News

Rev. Johnny Luffman, of Little Elkin, preached at Oak Forest Sunday. He was accompanied by a Mr. Caudill, also a minister. Mr. Luffman, who has been much liked, talks of giving up the church in September.

Rev. Graham Smith preached at Oak Forest Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oakley recently built a nice house on the road leading to Cranberry. A Glass boy, recently married, also repaired and reroofed the "Uncle Ab" Shipwash house, which has the excellent Shipwash chimneys but had suffered much neglect.

Two of the colored people of this section, Pansy Parks and Jack Martin, died last week. Pansy was buried at Union Grove the past Monday. Both were widely known. Pansy was the daughter of Isabel Curry Edwards and her husband, a former slave, Jack was the grandson of "Uncle Hamp" Martin (formerly Hamp Corpening) who came to this section in 1849 from Johns River, Burke County, when his owner, Miss Laura Corpening, married Col. Leander Martin. "Uncle Hamp," according to tradition, was a favorite darkie with white people of this part of the county.

Monroe Smithy visited his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frances Henric Smithy, and her baby girl, Shirley, at Jonesville Friday of last week.

Rev. Troy Baker Will Preach At Oakwoods

Rev. Troy Baker, of Independence, Va., will preach at Oakwoods Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Baker will bring a quartet from Mt. Carmel Baptist church near Roaring Gap to render special singing.

The public is cordially invited to attend this service.
