Southside Singing At Walnut Grove
By MRS. FLOYD M. JENNINGS
The Southside Singing Association convened at Walnut Grove Baptist church, at Pores Knob, Sunday, May 29, at 11 o'clock. Chairman F. J. McDuffie presided and led the devotionals.
The session was opened by The Sun Beam Quartet, manager Charlie T. Jones of Jonesville, followed by the Oak Ridge Quartet, leader Howard Adams of Jonesville; the Mt. Vernon Quartet, leader Joe Hayes of Boone; the Harmonizers Quartet, leader Z. T. Greene of Granite Falls; the Victory Quartet, leader Mr. Hemric of Ronda; The Iredell Four Quartet, leader Joe Bowles, of Statesville, and the Twin-City Quartet, leader Fred Marshall of Winston-Salem. After one round all were called together for a chorus to end the morning session. At the noon hour everyone enjoyed a bountiful picnic on the ground.
The afternoon session opened with congregational singing by Robert Johnson, of Wilkesboro. Other singers and pianists enrolled were Mt. Carmel Choir, leader Ray Parlier of Pores Knob; the Sunrise Quartet, leader Garsh Fox of Hiddenite; Walnut Grove Quartet, leader J. B. Parlier, of Pores Knob. Mr. Parlier also led in congregational singing during the day; the Welcome Home choir, leader Sherman Shumate, and Welcome Home Quartet, leader Worth Vooten, of Cricket; Herschel Wooten, baritone soloist of Winston-Salem; The Hendren quartet, leader Floyd Hendren, of Gilreath; J. E. Swanson, vocal soloist of Lenoir; also piano soloists Miss Lois Sharpe of Hiddenite and Miss Emogene Greene of Granite Falls.
After rounds of singing, all were grouped again to sing favorites of the season, led by Fred Marshall. Time was given for special requests.
The association wishes to thank J. B. Parlier and helpers for the table and the home church with others who provided the fine picnic on the ground; The Twin-City Quartet for the loud speaker; the Pores Knob Community House trustees for extra chairs; the Euzelean Sunday school class for the beautiful flower arrangement; Milas Lowe for the abundance of ice, water; Edmond Edsel and Earl Meadows for parking cars, and all others who contributed to the success of the occasion.
The session adjourned to meet the fifth Sunday in July at Little Rock Baptist church, located by highway 18 between Moravian Falls and Lenoir.

Florida Governor To Wed Californian
Los Angeles.—The Governor of Florida is coming to California for a bride.
The engagement of Governor Fuller Warren and Miss Barbara Manning, Los Angeles socialite, was announced yesterday by the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Ward Plunkett. They will wed Sunday, June 26.
It will be the third marriage for the personable 43-year-old Florida leader, the first for Miss Manning, 24.
Starting its 15th year the Rural Electrification Administration finds that the unelectrified farms are now less than 30 per cent compared with nearly 90 per cent in 1935.
