Jarvis-Martin Vows June 19th

Miss Bonnie Sue Jarvis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Grady Jarvis, of Hickory, formerly of Wilkes; and Sidney Arnold Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy B. Martin, of Raleigh, are to be married Sunday afternoon, June 19, at five o'clock at the First Baptist church, Hickory.

Miss Jarvis is a music student at Meredith College, Raleigh. Mr. Martin is a student of Bowman Gray School of Medicine.

The bride-elect is a granddaughter of Rev. N. T. Jarvis, of Roaring River, Route 2, and the late Mrs. Nellie V. Mastin Jarvis.

She is also a granddaughter of Mrs. W. T. Martin, of Clingman, and the late W. T. Martin.

The bridegroom-to-be is a nephew of Col. Sanford Martin, veteran editor of The Winston-Salem Journal.

Episcopal Auxiliary In Monthly Meeting

Miss Toby Turner, Mrs. Roy Reins, and Mrs. H. H. Morehouse combined hospitality to the members of the Episcopal Auxiliary in their monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at Miss Turner's home on the Brushy Mountain. In the election of officers for another year, with the president, Mrs. B. R. Underwood, presiding the following were chosen: President, Mrs. Paul Harvel, Jr.; vice president, Mrs. C. Monroe Williams; recording secretary, Miss Betty Hill; and treasurer, Mrs. Roy Reins. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Wilkesboro W.S.C.S. Met Tuesday Afternoon

A large number of the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Wilkesboro Methodist church were present Tuesday afternoon for the monthly meeting held at the home of Mrs. Julius C. Hubbard with her mother, Mrs. J. W. White, as associate hostess. Mrs. W. M. DeBerry, the new president, presided for routine business.

Mrs. H. A. Cranor and Mrs. J. B. Henderson conducted the devotions and program, which was a study of Africa. Mrs. J. E. Spainhour, sister of Mrs. White, came in for the social hour during which time the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Robert Gambill Pastime Club Hostess

The members of the Pastime bridge club were entertained by Mrs. Robert Gambill at her home in Wilkesboro Monday evening. The game, played at two tables, was preceded by a dessert course. Prizes for high and second high scores went to Mrs. Bob Kite and Mrs. Johnson Sanders, and the bingo awards to Mrs. Flake Cook and Mrs. Arthur Lowe.

Miss Mable Hendren Entertains Her Club

Miss Mable Hendren was hostess to the members of her bridge club at her home in Wilkesboro Saturday evening, and had two additional guests, Miss Mildred Bradford and Mrs. Robla Wooten. Two tables were arranged for play in a setting of larkspur and roses. Miss Bradford, a teacher in the North Wilkesboro public school and who is going to Peru to teach, was remembered with a gift, and she also received the high score prize in the game of bridge. Mrs. M. G. Edwards won the bingo award. The hostess served a dessert course at the beginning of play.

U.D.C. Chapter Met Monday Afternoon

The members of the Wilkes Valley Guards chapter of the U. D. C. held a meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. R. Finley on E Street. The salute to the flags was led by Mrs. C. D. Coffey, Sr., and the devotions were conducted by Mrs. J. W. White.

During the business session announcement was made of the Division Convention to be held in Durham in October, and that the graves in Wilkesboro on May 19 were decorated by Mr. C. H. Cowles, Mrs. White and her grandson, Mr. Buddy Hubbard.

For the program Mrs. Coffey told about the Jefferson Davis highway. In serving refreshments at the close of the meeting the hostess was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. S. P. Mitchell.

State Convention Lions' June 19th May Set Record

With the state-wide Lions International convention to be held at Wrightsville Beach June 19, 20 and 21 still three weeks away, over four hundred and fifty delegates have already reserved accommodations, convention Harris Ligon announced last night.

"It promises to be one of the largest conventions ever held at the resort," Ligon said, "it might top the attendance of other state conventions of the past."

Lions from every corner of North Carolina are among those registered. It is expected by convention time that over one thousand Lions will be on hand for the three day sessions of business and pleasure.

Heading the list of dignitaries expected to be present are International Director Roy P. Herold, Wheeling, West Virginia, Director Edward H. McMahan, Brevard, N. C., Dr. D. J. Whitener, District Governor, 31-A, C. E. Kerehner, District Governor, 31-B, and Joe W. Hood, District Governor, 31-C.

Bingo Party At Cricket On Friday

The members of the Cricket Home Demonstration Club are sponsoring a bingo party Friday evening, June 10, beginning at 7:30. The party will be held in the old store building near the home of D. E. Turner and the proceeds will be used to help complete the Community House. You are cordially invited to come out and win some of the attractive prizes.
