

Oak Forest Revival Gets Good Results

Evangelist "Sledge hammer" Charlie Andrew Keyes, Jr., who has been conducting a great and successful revival meeting at Oak Forest Baptist church during the last two weeks, will continue the meeting by request of the church, all through this week, closing Sunday night, June 12. A large number of converts saved in the meeting will be baptized Sunday afternoon, June 12, 2:30 p. m. at a site near Mr. James F. Staley's home, two miles from the church. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.—Contributed.

European crop conditions, as of mid-May, continue to point to a total crop production below that of the favorable 1948 season but considerably above that of the drought year 1947.

He first married Miss Anna Laura Myers, who died in 1908. He was later married to Miss Della Florence Hodges, who survives. He leaves ten children: Luther and Andrew Long, Mrs. George Harris, Eldridge Long and Mrs. W. H. Hemrick, all of Jonesville; Mrs. Culos Roberson, of Draper; Mrs. Beatrice Solomon, Mrs. Archie Wilmouth, of Winston-Salem; Ted Long and Mrs. Sam Alexander, of Elkin. SPORTS BRIEFS

Fathers, mothers and all others who may or should be interested in boys should give more support to the American Legion junior baseball program here... Attendance at the opening game here Monday night was pitifully inadequate.

Jack Cooper, experienced left fielder and usually dependable hitter, has been out of the lineup for a week because of a severe ankle injury at Mount Airy recently. He received the sprain while sliding into second base.

Reports indicate that Carl Church has a hustling group of young boys playing baseball at Purlar... There should be a rule in the county league that each team in every game should have a minimum number of youth in the lineup. Last reports are that there will be four teams in the county league and that a 30-game schedule will be played in Memorial Park under auspices of the Wilkes Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Umpires say that the grass in front of the bleachers in center field should be cut, especially around the little fence. If it will help them to see better we think the grass should be cut immediately... In reply to a letter from yours truly, Judge E. C. Bivins, president of the Blue Ridge League, says he will make every effort to provide the best umpiring possible in the circuit. There is plenty of room for improvement on the part of Haddad and Omogrosso, and perhaps Jay and Shealer. Welder is a veteran umpire and does not miss much. Oliveri can call some very good games.

To get to the top and keep there, the Flashers are in need of one more top-flight pitcher. But, strange to say, Elkin in or near the cellar has perhaps the best mound staff in the Blue Ridge league. A team has to have on its hitting clothes to roll up much of a score against Elkin pitchers.
