MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL — EDITOR

Millers Creek W.
C. S. C. Meets

The Women's Division of Christian Service of Millers Creek met Thursday night, June 16th, at the home of Mrs. James Foster.

Mrs. H. D. Caudill, Jr., conducted an interesting program on Africa and its progress.

After the program and business session, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and a recreation period of games was enjoyed by the members present.

The July meeting is scheduled to be with Mrs. Dewey Caudill at Millers Creek.

Miss Faw Honors
Two Brides-Elect

Miss Corinne Faw was hostess at an informal tea at her home on Sixth Street Saturday afternoon to compliment two brides-elect of the summer, Miss Billie Barnes, who is to wed this month Livingston Johnson, of Winston-Salem; and Miss Mary Gage Barber, to wed Joseph Clements in mid-August. Around twenty guests assembled at four o'clock and during the hour Miss Faw was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. C. C. Faw, Jr. Each of the honorees were remembered with silver in their chosen patterns.

Cooke-Foster Vows
Are Solemnized

Miss Carolyn June Cooke, daughter of Mrs. Pearl Cooke, of Purlear, became the bride of Ivan G. Foster, of Champion, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taft Foster, on Tuesday, June 14, at the home of the groom's parents. The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Latt Beshears, of Hickory.

The bride and groom entered together unattended. The bride wore a white taffeta street length dress, with white accessories. Her corsage was of American Beauty roses.

After the ceremony the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points. For travel the bride changed to a pink summer suit, dressmaker style, with brown accessories. Upon their return they will be at home at Champion, where the groom is engaged in farming and poultry business. The bride graduated this June from the Mount Pleasant high school.

Mrs. Cooke, mother of the bride, wore a dress of chartreuse crepe with white accessories, and a corsage of briarcliff roses. Mrs. Foster, mother of the groom, had a dress of dusty rose crepe with black accessories, and a corsage of matching briarcliff roses.

Brooks-Chamblee Vows Saturday

Miss Edythe Marie Brooks, of Raleigh and Wilkesboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud C. Brooks, Wilkesboro, Route One, and Douglas Scales Chamblee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland S. Chamblee, Zebulon, were married in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in the Edenton Street Methodist church in Raleigh. The vows were spoken before Dr. Howard P. Powell, pastor. Wedding music was played by Mrs. William D. Miller, organist. The church was decorated with palms, fern, floor baskets of white gladioli and candelabra with cathedral tapers.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, C. C. Brooks, Jr., of Wilkesboro, wore a dress of ashes of rose crepe fashioned with a fitted bodice with tiny self-covered buttons to the waistline and a softly draped skirt. Her hat was of matching braided straw with a draped veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Dorothy Brooks of Wilkesboro. She wore a dress of powder blue crepe with matching straw hat similar to the bride's, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Graham V. Chamblee, Denbigh, Virginia, was best man for his brother. Ushers were R. Phillip Upchurch of Raleigh and L. Aubrey Goodson of Washington, D. C.

The bride's mother wore a dress of navy blue crepe with matching straw hat. The groom's mother also chose a navy blue costume. Both wore corsages of purple orchids.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

For traveling, the bride wore a navy blue bolero suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a motor trip through western North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Chamblee will make their home in Raleigh.

Mrs. Chamblee is a graduate of Millers Creek High School and attended Draughon's Business College in Winston-Salem. Prior to her marriage, she held a position with the du Pont Experimental Station in Wilmington, Delaware.

Mr. Chamblee, who is a member of the research staff of the Agronomy Department at N. C. State College, is a graduate of

Eudaily-Watts
Vows Are Spoken

Miss Frances Eudaily, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Eudaily, of Millers Creek, and Mr. Clay Watts, son of Mrs. Finley Watts and the late Rev. Finley Watts, of Purlear, were married June 10 in Friendship Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Short.

Mrs. Watts was educated at North Wilkesboro high school and Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, N. C. She is now with the Northwestern Bank of North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Watts received his education at Millers Creek high school and Mars Hill College. He is now employed by radio station WKBC as advertising manager.

They will make their home at Boonville.

Miss McNeill Hostess At Coffee Hour

The coffee hour given by Miss Elizabeth McNeill at her home on Ninth Street Monday morning was a courtesy for Misses Mary Lee Gardner, Billie Barnes, Betty Gray Church, and Jo Lassiter. Crystal was honor gifts for Miss Barnes, bride-elect of Livingston Johnson, Winston-Salem; and Miss Lassiter, bride-elect of Harold Sturdivant, Wilkesboro; and china was given to Miss Gardner, bride-elect of Don Culler, Wilkesboro; and Miss Church, bride-elect of Walter Morphis, Lexington. Each of the honorees were presented corsages. During the hour from nine to ten the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. B. McNeill, in serving coffee and fancy pastries.
