make him the batting star of the opener. Frank Fazio didn't allow a hit after the fourth and retired Radford's best batters in order in the seventh. Worth Outhbertson went the route for the Flashers in the second game and had the situation well in hand after being touched for four runs in the first three frames. Radford scored two in the first off a walk and single, and added one run each in the second and third to make the score 4-0. In the third Pascitelli doubled and scored on Cooper's first of four hits in the game. The fourth was the big inning as the Flashers batted out Wilson again. Manager Thompson called in John Moore, league's strikeout ace, and he was greeted by Doug Shores' long triple. Radford's infield fell apart in the eighth for two runs. Jack Cooper was the batting star with four hits in the second game. His hits included a boom-
