Miss Billie Barnes Honored At Tea

Mrs. Winfield Scott Fletcher and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Parks Church, both of Purlear, were hostesses at a lovely tea, in which the rainbow colors were emphasized, at the Woman's clubhouse on Trogon street Friday afternoon honoring their niece and cousin, Miss Billie Barnes, who is to wed on June 28 Livingston Johnson, of Winston-Salem. Approximately 150 guests called between the hours of 3:30-5:30 to greet the honoree and enjoy the gracious hospitality of the hostesses.

Mrs. C. S. Sink welcomed the callers at the door and Mrs. Boyd Stout presented them to the receiving line, composed of the two hostesses, the honoree, Mrs. Tal Barnes, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. R. T. McNeil, Mrs. Wingate Johnson, Miss Catherine Johnson, mother and sister of the groom-elect, and Mrs. James M. Hayes, all three from Winston-Salem, and Mrs. A. F. Kilby.

Mrs. Harold Burke directed to punch bowl where Mrs. D. T. Trivette, assisted by Miss Annie Laurie Canter and Mrs. Roy Forehand, poured punch. Those helping with the serving were Mrs. Catherine Carrington, Mrs. Charles Winters, Mrs. Henry Moore, Misses Clara Lee Watts, Beth Jones, and Grace Frank Kilby.

Piano music was rendered during the tea hours by Mrs. L. M. Nelson, Mrs. Robert Gibbs, Miss Ellen Robinson, and Miss Lois Scroggs. Mrs. Paul Harvel, Jr., and Mrs. C. C. Faw, Jr., were in charge of the bride's register. Others assisting the hostesses were Mesdames J. D. Moore, Sr., Guy Lillard, Presley Myers, Ivey Moore, and Miss Ruby Blackburn. Goodbyes were spoken to Mrs. F. C. Forester and Mrs. C. G. Poindexter.

Also attending the tea from Winston-Salem were Mrs. J. Bruce Futrell and Mrs. J. M. Kesler.

Ash And Craig Vows Exchanged

Statesville, June 21.—Broad Street Methodist church was scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon, June 11, of Mrs. Mary Davis Ash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lawson Davis of Statesville, and James Avery Craig, Jr., of Winston-Salem and Hickory, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Avery Craig of Hickory. Rev. Charles P. Bowles, pastor, conducted the ceremony.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Cadet Louis M. Davis of West Point, N. Y., and attended by two bridesmaids, Mrs. Lewis Watson of Lenoir and Miss Frances Matthews of Winston-Salem. Mr. Craig had his brother, Powell Craig, as best man. Ushers were John C. Davis of Winston-Salem and Cadet Louis M. Davis of West Point, the bride's brothers, Emory McCall, of Lenoir and Weston P. Hatfield, Jr., of Winston-Salem.

Music was by Miss Margaret Anderson of North Wilkesboro, cousin of the bride, soloist, and Mrs. Harold R. Wilson, organist.

Mrs. Craig attended Mitchell College in Statesville. She is secretary to Dallace McLennan, attorney in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Craig attended Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, and North Carolina State College, Raleigh. He served in the army air corps as lieutenant, and at present is pilot for Piedmont Air Lines, Winston-Salem.

Senior Woman's Club Has Successful Year

To close a most successful year for the North Wilkesboro Senior Woman's club the June meeting was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. G. Duncan with Mesdames J. S. Zimmerman, M. B. McNeill, W. F. Gaddy, R. S. Gibbs, Jr., and Dermont Smith as associate hostesses. Mrs. Jack Swofford, program chairman presented Dr. F. O. Hubbard, who spoke to the group about the cancer clinic being held each Tuesday morning in Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Ivey Moore, the president, occupied the chair for the business session during which time the club voted as one of its projects for next year to give $100 to some worthy college student. The committee for the new year book was appointed, and this book will be ready for distribution at the next meeting which will be in September. The grounds committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Swofford, has been very active during the year, and the clubhouse under the supervision of Mrs. W. F. First Methodist Church Vacation Bible School

The Daily Vacation Bible School of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church, which had been in session for two weeks, came to a successful close on Friday morning. Miss Jo Lassiter, director of religious education of the church and general superintendent of the school, was ably assisted by a number of workers. Miss Norma Gabriel served as secretary.

Miss Lassiter worked in the junior department and other staff members were Mrs. P. W. Eshelman and Miss Patsy Pope. Other instructors, part or all the time were, for primary department, Mrs. Cecil Hauss, Nellie Gabriel, Jo Ann Byers, Betsy Doughton, and Betty Lou McNeill, and for the beginners department, Margaret Anderson, Agnes Kenerly, Donna Smith, Margie Kenerly, Nell Gwyn Brame, Carolyn Deans, and Mrs. Hampton McNeill.

Out of an enrollment of sixty-eight children, certificates were presented to forty-seven. During the school an offering of $20.00 was received which will be used in sending Care Packages for relief.

bout the rooms. Green and white bouquets centered the tables, a bridal doll was centerpiece for the dining table, and on the mantle was a green and white heart bearing a miniature bride and groom. A number of cards were given to the honoree, who is to be married in August, which directed her on a treasure hunt for her gifts. Later in the evening contract rummy was played for awhile. In serving the supper the hostesses were assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Gaddy.

Mrs. Russell Pearson Gives Two Parties

Mrs. Russell Pearson was hostess at two delightful parties at her home in Wilkesboro entertaining Tuesday evening and Wednesday afternoon. For Tuesday evening the guests included members of the Wilabri bridge club and two brides-elects, Misses Mary Lee Gardner and Billie Barnes, both of whom were given china. Mrs. E. H. Fritts, of Hariman, Tenn., who is here visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Culler, was remembered with a gift.

Bridge was played at four tables, being followed by a salad course. Top score prize for the club members was won by Mrs. Bob Damschroder and for the visitors by Mrs. Johnson Sanders. Mrs. Ray Kennedy received the bingo award.

For Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Pearson had guests again for four tables of bridge, and honored another bride-elect, Miss Betty Gray Church, who received china and a corsage from the hostess. Mrs. Charles Winters, the former Miss Carolyn Moore, was also presented with a gift. A dessert course was served at the beginning of play, and for each party a color note of green and white was emphasized in the decorations and refreshments. High and second high score prizes were won by Mrs. Presley Myers and Mrs. Glenn Green.

The range system of growing turkeys is more practical for North Carolina commercial growers since grazing crops may be produced all months of the year, thus reducing the feed cost.

Miss Betty Lou Foster Given Linen Shower

Miss Betty Lou Foster, whose engagement to Frederick Gaddy has been announced, was honored at a linen shower Thursday evening given by Miss Geraldine Gaddy at her home in Finley Park. Miss Jacqueline Knott, of Kinston, houseguest of Miss Margaret Ann Hutchens, received a gift from the hostess. The twenty-five guests, served a buffet supper at seven o'clock, found seats at small tables placed about the rooms.
