

FAMILY LIFE WORKSHOP TO BE HELD JULY 5-8 IN THIS CITY

Beginning next Tuesday through Friday night, students will be here from both the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, and the Negro College in Durham to conduct a Family Life Workshop for both white and colored groups on "Education For Responsible Parenthood."

There will also be training for younger boys and girls of the Teen age. This workshop is brought here free of charge by these Universities at the expense of the state.

This is a county-wide course of instruction and all persons of the Wilkesboro and surrounding communities are urged to attend these meetings and to send their teen-age boys and girls for the sound, and wholesome training they need at this age.

MRS. JOHN BAITY, Committee Chairman, DR. JOHN T. WAYLAND, SUPT. J. FLOYD WOODWARD, MRS. ETHEL McIVER, Boys and girls group, 12-14, afternoon, "How We Grow Up," Teen-agers group, afternoon, "Love, Courtship, and Marriage," Young Married Couples and

Young Adults group, night, "Pathways To A Happy Marriage."

Parents of "Teen-Agers group, night, "Do You Now Your Teen-Agers?"

Under these topics, the following subjects will be discussed: Emotional Growth, Proper Attitude Toward Sex, Proper Boy and Girl Relationships, Well Rounded Personality — self-respect, pride (in the school), Use of Leisure Time, Courtship and Marriage, Early and Secret Marriages, Teamwork in Marriage, Home Making, Proper Attitudes Toward Others in Community, Guiding an All Round Development.

Tentative schedule for Family Life Workshop. White and colored groups will have same type program. Purpose of two meeting places for white group — convenience for attendants.

Personnel for white group: Mr. J. T. Greene, Minister and Lecturer; Mrs. Nellie Greene, minister's wife and teacher; Mrs. Clarinda Britt, vocational home economics teacher; Miss Louisa Goodbread, high school teacher;

Courtesies Extended To Wedding Party

Three delightful social events given the first of the week closed an interesting round of entertainment for the wedding of Miss Billie Barnes and Livingston Johnson, which took place Tuesday evening, eight o'clock, at the First Baptist church.

The cake-cutting party was given Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kilby and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. McNeil at the Kilby home on Sixth Street, guests numbering around seventy-five. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Day, Miss Harriet Crutchfield and Lomax Kilby greeted the guests at the front door and directing to the rear lawn where the party was held were on the first terrace Miss Jo Lassiter and Harold Sturdivant, and on the second terrace Miss Corinne Faw and Charles Sink. The four hosts received on the lawn which was lighted by Japanese lanterns.

The bride's table, spread with a white Maderia linen cloth, was decorated with white candles in silver holders, lace fern and tiny white chrysanthemums. On each corner were corsages of the white flowers nestled in white satin ribbon extending into streamers. The wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was cut by Mrs. Tal Barnes, mother of the bride, and Mrs. McNeil, after the bridal couple had cut the first slice. Mrs. W. D. Halfacre and Mrs. C. S. Sink presided at the punch bowl, which was embedded in magnolia foliage and blossoms, and assisting in serving lime punch, were Misses Mary Louise Clements, Lucille Casey, Peggy Nichols and Mrs. Don Story.

Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant was hostess at a small luncheon at her home on Ninth Street Tuesday for the bride and her attendants. A three course luncheon was served at one o'clock with covers laid for six, the table being appointed in the bridal motif. Honor gift for Miss Barnes was a corsage and china in her chosen pattern, and Miss Beth Jones, who has accepted a position in Wadesboro, was also remembered with a gift.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Halfacre and their daughter, Mrs. E. C. Hill, of Charleston, S. C., entertained at a buffet supper at their home on Trogon Street honoring the wedding party. Around thirty-six guests were present for the supper served at six o'clock. Mixed summer blossoms were used on the dining table and elsewhere about the home.
