Seining In Yadkin July 1 To August 31

Joel Bentley, district game protector, said today that the Yadkin river from the Surry county line to Ferguson bridge will be open for seining from July 1 to August 31. All other streams are closed to seining.

The regulations are as follows: Each seine must be tagged with a metal tag, along with a fishing license. Tag may be secured from the game protector.

Mr. Bentley also stated that the east prong of Roaring River from Joynes postoffice to mouth of Stone Mountain creek and the middle prong from mouth of Lovelace creek to Bluff Park boundary has been stocked with rainbow trout.
