Cullen-Finley Vows Are Said In Portsmouth

Portsmouth, Va. — The marriage of Miss Hannah Stevens Finley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Walter Finley, of Free Union, to Benjamin Thomas Cullen, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Cullen, of Portsmouth, took place Saturday afternoon, June 18, at four o'clock in the Park View Methodist church, Portsmouth, with the Rev. Joseph T. Allen officiating.

Herbert Stewart played the wedding music, and Rowland Ellis sang "O Promise Me", and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life". A quartet composed of Rowland Ellis, Charles Lane, Miss Edna Fannery, and Miss Grace Davis, sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a wedding gown of candlelight satin made with lace yoke, long sleeves pointed over the hands, and the gathered skirt which extended from a tight-fitting bodice and formed a sweeping train. Her full-length veil of illusion was arranged with white orchids and showered with stephanotis.

Mrs. John W. Wilson, of Richmond, matron of honor, wore a gown of Nile green marquisette over taffeta, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Ted Folger, of Richmond, and Mrs. Claude Sykes, of Portsmouth, were dressed in lavender marquisette over taffeta.

The bridegroom had his father as best man. The ushers were Malcolm Finley, of Chicago, Robert Cullen, Claude Sykes and Reid Edwards, of Portsmouth.

There was a reception after the ceremony. Later the couple left for a wedding trip to western North Carolina, after which they will reside at the University of Virginia. The bride traveled in a beige linen suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. J. H. Winkler, of North Wilkesboro, attended the wedding.

Mrs. William C. Thompson, of Charlotte, who was a houseguest here during the week of Miss Ruby Blackburn, was extended a number of informal courtesies. Mrs. Thompson, the former Miss Janie McDiarmid, formerly lived in North Wilkesboro.

Mrs. Thompson is a former member of the club. On Tuesday evening Mrs. Gordon Finley had Mrs. Thompson and a small group of her friends in for a watermelon cutting at the Finley home on E street.

Courtesies for Wednesday and Friday were luncheons given by Miss Ellen Robinson and Mrs. Albert Vannoy. Miss Robinson, aunt of Mrs. Thompson, entertained at the Wilkes hotel and Mrs. Vannoy at the Carolina Restaurant.

Friday evening Mrs. Guy Lillard and Miss Rebecca Moseley had a dinner party for Mrs. Thompson at the Hotel Wilkes, after which the group attended the Drive-In Theatre at Mulberry. Another honor guest of the hostesses were Mrs. Fred Hemphill, of Greensboro. Mrs. Paul Cashion had a luncheon for Mrs. Thompson Saturday at her home in Forest Hills.

Mrs. W. W. Miller, Sr. Is Society Hostess

DeBerry, the president, was in charge of the business session. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour that followed the meeting.

The guests came at 5:30 o'clock for an informal hour and during the time were served tempting refreshments by the hostesses. Mixed garden flowers formed a colorful background for the young group of girls.

Mrs. Floyd Woodward entertained for the members of the Sans Souci club at her home on E street Thursday evening and a few additional guests. A desert course was served at the beginning of the bridge game played at two tables, the hostess being assisted by her two daughters, Patricia and Gail Woodward. Winners of the high and second high score prizes were Mrs. Boyd Stout and Mrs. M. B. McNeill. A special guest of the club was Mrs. Woodward's mother, Mrs. Willis, of St. Paul, who was visiting in the Woodward home.

LIKE SOME PEOPLE YOU KNOW

We love to watch the rooster crow
He's like so many we know;
Who brag and bluster, rant and shout.
And beat their manly chests without.
The first darn thing to brag about.
