Mrs. O. E. Triplett Bridge Club Hostess

Mrs. O. E. Triplett entertained for the members of the Ex-Along club at her home on Ninth Street Friday evening having guests for three tables of bridge. Prizes for high and second high scores were awarded to Mrs. Ray Hoover and Mrs. E. S. Cooper. Tempting refreshments were served by the hostess during play.

Mrs. Fred Emerson Entertains Her Club

The Round Table club members and three additional visitors, Mesdames F. C. Forester, Johnson J. Hayes, and Boyd Stout, were entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Emerson at her home in Wilkesboro. A dessert course was served at the beginning of play. Instead of giving prizes in the game of bridge played at two tables the hostess had attractive favors for each of the guests.

Ponder A Moment

One's friend can be a harmful foe
And capable of causing woe,
Lest you forgive and no grudge bear
For grievance done—try being fair.
What's done is done and should not be
Remembered all eternity.
Forgive, forget and make amends;
One sours life by losing friends.

Purina Salesman Attended Council

Ernest Robinson recently returned from Albemarle, where he attended a two-day Feeding Advisory Council sponsored by the Ralston Purina Company and held at the Albemarle Hotel. Ernest Robinson was one of 35 men selected from Purina dealers' stores in the South Atlantic region for this intensive training course.

Ernest Robinson was given instruction in the feeding, management and sanitation of livestock and poultry. He and all members attending this Council visited farms near Albemarle where they could study actual poultry and livestock operations. They were given training in recognition and treatment of disease problems.

This Council at Albemarle was the second in a series of five. Upon the successful completion of the course, Ernest Robinson will be given a diploma as a graduate Feeding Advisor and will receive a gold ring from the Ralston Purina Company in recognition of his work.

President Truman has proclaimed the week beginning July 24 as National Farm Safety Week.

"It's not our hat!"

The Southern Railway doesn't pass the hat for your tax dollars.

Other forms of commercial transportation use highways, airports and waterways that are built and maintained with your tax dollars—and ours.

But railroads are strictly on their own. Every penny they spend to build and maintain their own steel "highways" comes right out of the railroads' pockets—not yours.

We're glad we are not in the "hat-passing" class. We prefer to stand on our own financial feet in the old-fashioned American way. And we believe that if there were no hat-passers in the transportation business it would be better for you and for all America.
