Miss Mary G. Barber Feted At Three Events

In continuing an interesting round of social events for Miss Mary Gage Barber, bride-elect of this month of Joe Clements, three courtesies were extended her over the week-end. Saturday afternoon Mrs. Tom T. Foster entertained at a Coca-Cola party at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. T. Mitchell, in Wilkesboro, for Miss Barber, also Miss Ruth Steelman, who is to wed T. R. Bryan, Jr., and the hostess' cousin, Miss Josephine Hunter, of Fayetteville, who was here visiting Miss Helen Phillips. Each of the honorees were given corsages, Miss Barber silver, Miss Steelman china, and Miss Hunter stationery. Mrs. Foster received eighteen guests at four o'clock and during the hour was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Mitchell, in serving tempting refreshments.

Miss Kate Finley was hostess at an informal luncheon Monday at Bluff Park, honoring Miss Barber. Covers were laid for ten. The honoree received from Miss Finley silver in her chosen pattern.

Courtesy for Monday evening was a card party given by Mrs. C. Monroe Williams and her sister, Miss Alice Cassell, at the Cassel home in Wilkesboro. The hostesses presented Miss Barber with silver in her wedding pattern, and Mrs. Goodwin Bloomfield, a newcomer to Wilkesboro, was also remembered with a gift. Cards were played at three tables with the top score prize in bridge going to Miss Betsy Barber and in rook to Mrs. Tommy Crysel.

A salad and sweet course, carrying a green and white note, was served at the conclusion of play, and the tallies were in bridal design. Mrs. William Barber and Miss Elizabeth Barber, mother and aunt of the bride-to-be, came in for the refreshments.

The Misses Campbells Extended Courtesy

Miss Carolyn Foster was hostess at a rook party Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taft Foster, at Champion, honoring Misses Dorothy and Wanda Campbell, who are to be married to John Scalf, Jr., of High Point, and Ray Garland, of this city, in a double ceremony on Sunday, August 21, at the First Baptist church. The brides-to-be were given rosebud corsages and gifts of china and linen.

WHICH WILL YOU HAVE?
Foolish question? Not at all. In countries where freedom has vanished some people may own bikes, but cars may never be within their reach. The American standard of living provides abundantly. Installment buying with the aid of bank credit also is part of the answer. A bank auto loan at low cost helps many families to own new cars!
