Mrs. Don Culler Fetes Two Brides-Elect

Mrs. Don Culler was hostess at four tables of bridge at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, in Finley Park Monday evening honoring three brides-elect, Miss Lucille Casey, who on Saturday evening is to wed George Campbell Wilson, of Belmont; Miss Mary Dula, bride-elect of Edsel Whittington, North Wilkesboro; and Miss Dot Powell, bride-to-be of William Gray, Wilkesboro. Each of the honorees received from Mrs. Culler corsages of white flowers and gifts. A dessert course was served at the beginning of play. Winners of the high and low score prizes in the game were Mrs. Charles Winters and Miss Dula.

Fidelis Class In Wilkesboro Met Tuesday

The Fidelis Sunday School class of Wilkesboro Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Miller on Tuesday evening with Mesdames Bill Jester and Lloyd Pardue as associate hostesses. Mrs. Elmer Lowe was in charge of the devotional period, bringing an inspiring message on "The Virtue of Cheerfulness."

The class president, Mrs. Presley Myers, presided during the business session and heard the usual reports. The following officers were elected for the coming year: class president Mrs. George Parlier; 1st vice president, Mrs. Robert Foster; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Zeb Dickson; 3rd vice president, Mrs. G. T. Mitchell; 4th vice president, Mrs. Bill Jester; class secretary, Mrs. Monzel Mastin.

During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Lois Ann Myers.

The meeting was well attended, having 19 members and 2 visitors present.

Miss Lucille Casey Feted At Breakfast

As a courtesy for Miss Lucille Casey, bride-elect this week of George Campbell Wilson, of Belmont, Mrs. Boyd Stout was hostess at a small breakfast at the Carolina Breakfast club Wednesday morning. Other guests were Miss Casey's grandmother, mother, her matron of honor and maid of honor in her wedding, Mrs. A. J. Eller, Mrs. A. H. Casey, Mrs. Bob Day, and Miss Mary Ann Casey. A corsage and a gift marked the honoree's place. Mrs. Eller received the orchid given by the Breakfast club for being the oldest person present.

Mrs. Larry Brookshire Bible Class Hostess

Mrs. Larry Brookshire entertained the members of the Daily Bible Reading Class, of the Fairplains community August 18th. A delicious dinner was served before the beginning of the study, the hostess being assisted by her daughters. At 1:30 devotional opened with prayers and song "Count Your Blessings." Lesson was the beginning of a series of comprehensive studies of the Book of the Hebrews. Mrs. Ben Colvard, leader, brought out the blessed truth of "Christ, the Mediator of a New and Better Covenant," and the fact that "without faith it is impossible to please God." We would be glad to have all the ladies of the Fairplains community to meet with us the second Wednesday of each month at 1:30 p. m.—Reported.

Extended Courtesies

In continuing an interesting round of social activities for brides and brides-elect three parties were given during the week-end. On Friday evening Miss Harriet Crutchfield was hostess at a small bridge party at her home on C Street honoring Miss Lucille Casey, bride-elect of George Wilson, of Belmont; and Miss Dot Powell, bride-to-be of William Gray, of Wilkesboro. Both honorees were given china in their patterns and corsages. High and low score awards in the game, played at three tables, went to Mrs. Robert Smoak and Miss Jerry Caldwell. A dessert course was served at the beginning of the game. Mrs. Don Culler, a bride of the summer, was given a gift.

Mrs. Raymond Bowen, of Winston-Salem, and her sister, Miss Vivian McNeill, entertained at a dessert card party at the McNeill home on Tenth Street Saturday afternoon to honor Miss Casey. Other honor guests for the party included Miss Mary Dula, bride-elect of Edsel Whittington, North Wilkesboro; Mrs. Ray Hughes Garland, the former Miss Wanda Campbell, Mrs. William Raymer, who prior to her marriage was Miss Ruby Dancy, and Miss Powell. The honorees received from their hostesses corsages of white flowers, and gifts in their various patterns. A color note of green and white marked settings for the guests, who played bridge and rook at five tables. High and low score prizes in bridge were won by Miss Jerry Caldwell and Mrs. Robert Davis, while in rook the prizes went to Miss Mary Ann Casey and Mrs. Wanda Miller.

For Saturday evening Miss Jerry Caldwell gave an out door supper at her home on Kensington Drive as a courtesy for Miss Casey and her fiancé, Mr. Wilson, guests including a small group of friends. A white woolen blanket was honor gift for the bridal couple.
