Powell-Gray Vows Are Spoken In Home Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Lee Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Wright Powell, of North Wilkesboro, became the bride of William Campbell Gray, son of Mrs. Alexander Russell Gray, of Wilkesboro, and the late Mr. Gray, in a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride's parents on D Street Sunday afternoon, September the eleventh, at four o'clock. Dr. Gilbert R. Combs, pastor of the First Methodist church, was the officiating minister.

The background before which the vows were spoken was flanked with fern and pink candelabras holding pink tapers and a large arrangement of pink roses.

Mrs. Wake Clark was soloist, accompanied at the piano by Mr. Paul Withers, of Gastonia, uncle of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, had as her only attendant her cousin, Miss Jean Horton, of Flint, Michigan. Russell Gray was his brother's best man.

The bride's wedding gown of blush pink taffeta was fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, finger tip sleeves, and a full skirt ending in a train. To the coronet of pink seed pearls was attached the three-tiered finger tip veil of imported blush pink illusion. Her bouquet of pink roses and white orchids was showered with tube roses.

Miss Horton, the honor attendant, wore a dress of pink marquisette over pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink roses centered with tube roses. Pink tube roses formed her head dress.

A small reception was given by the bride's parents following the ceremony, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip. For travel the bride wore a moonstone blue velvet suit with matching accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Gray was graduated from the North Wilkesboro high school and attended High Point College. She now holds a position with the American Furniture company in North Wilkesboro.

Mr. Gray, a graduate of the Wilkesboro high school, attended the University of Richmond, at Richmond, Va. He served with the Air Corps three years during World War II, and is now connected with the Gray Brothers Furniture Store in Wilkesboro.

For the reception the table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered by a three-tiered pink wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, and lighted by pink tapers in silver candelabras. Punch, nuts, and mints were served with the cake.

Out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Withers, Gastonia; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hulse, Mr. Eddie Hulse, and Miss Mary Hulse, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Williams, Stokesdale; Mrs. Mamie Powell, Reidsville; and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Powell, Monroe.

"Better Living for a Better World" will be the theme for National 4-H Achievement Week, November 5-13.

SEED TREATING MATERIALS

Seed that are worth planting are worth treating. It's a good idea to put clean seeds in the soil by treating them with a good seed disinfectant.

We recommend—
Ceresan

It helps to improve stands by reducing seed decay and seedling blights. Ceresan usually controls surface-borne smuts of oats, barley and wheat.
