Mrs. Lawrence Miller Gives Card Party

The Wilkesboro Community House was the setting for a lovely party on Friday evening when Mrs. Lawrence Miller entertained at cards. Bridge was played at nine tables with the high score award going to Mrs. M. M. Brame, Jr., while Mrs. Charles Garwood was the winner of the prize in the game of rook played at six tables. Honor gifts were presented to Mrs. Ray Garland, the former Miss Wanda Campbell; to Mrs. H. H. Dotson, of Gladys, Va., houseguest of Mrs. Charles McNeill; and Mrs. T. P. Cridlebaugh, of Ashland, Ky., who was here visiting her sister, Mrs. D. L. Crook.

The hostess, prior to the game, was assisted by Mesdames Thomas E. Crysel and Presley Myers in serving a dessert course.

First Methodist MYF Holds A Retreat On Mountain

Members of the Methodist Youth Fellowship of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church held a Retreat during the week-end at the Hubbard Cottage on the Brushy Mountain. On Saturday evening a group of the officers accompanied by Miss Rebecca Raper, director of Religious Education, Mr. Bill Gabriel, and Mr. and Mrs. Thurmond Kenerly, met and discussed plans for the year. Several remained over for the night.

The officers for the new church year are Miss Norma Gabriel, president; Mr. Jim Moore, vice president; Miss Margie Kenerly, secretary and treasurer; and Miss Carolyn Deans, secretary of the MYF Fund.

Sunday morning a group of the other members joined those that spent the night and were led in a worship service by Mr. Gabriel. A picnic lunch was followed by a hike.

Ex Libris Club Met With Mrs. Johnston

Ex Libris club members were entertained in their fortnightly meeting Friday afternoon by Mrs. Richard Johnston at her home on Tenth Street. Mrs. Darwin Smithy presided for a short business session, and for the program Mrs. Johnston gave an article on the different types of homes. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Tal Barnes, Sr. Fetes Bridal Couple

Mrs. Tal Barnes was hostess at two small social affairs at her home on E Street honoring her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tal Barnes, Jr., who were married several weeks ago. The bride is the former Miss Lea Walsh.

On last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Barnes entertained at an informal tea from five to six, the guests consisting mostly of the younger set. Mrs. C. B. Eller poured tea, and others assisting the hostess were Mrs. R. T. McNeil and Mrs. A. H. Casey. On Wednesday evening the hostess had several couples in for a buffet supper honoring the bridal couple. For each occasion decorations for the dining room carried suggestions of the nuptial green and white.

Mrs. George Forester, Jr. Honored At Tea

Mrs. George Forester and her daughter, Mrs. Dwight Miller, were hostesses at a lovely tea at the Forester home on E Street Saturday afternoon honoring Mrs. George Forester, Jr., who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Elizabeth McNeill. Sharing honors with the bride were Mrs. Jack Anderson, of Greensboro, the former Miss Rose Zell Caudill, of North Wilkesboro; and Mrs. James Anderson, Jr., the former Miss Betty Thompson, of Avon Park, Fla. The hostesses had gifts for each of the honorees.

A number of friends were received during the hours of three to five-thirty o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Forester and Mrs. Miller at the tea were Mesdames Henry Moore, W. F. Absher, J. M. Anderson, Jr., John Snyder, Q. A. McNeill, Bob Day, Ed Day, and C. E. Jenkins, Sr. Decorations and appointments emphasized the bridal note in the dining room while elsewhere about the home mixed blossoms made a festive setting.

Fidelis Class Holds Revelation Party

The monthly meeting of the Fidelis class of the Wilkesboro Baptist church was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Claude Kennedy with Mrs. Monzel Mastin and Mrs. Roy Barnes as associate hostesses. Approximately thirty people attended the meeting, which was featured with a Revelation party. During the evening gifts were exchanged and names drawn for another year.

Mrs. G. T. Mitchell opened the meeting with a devotional period. During the business session the class decided to take as their project for the year the furnishing of the kitchen in the new educational building. It was reported that the silver had china had already been bought. The hostesses served refreshments at the close of the evening.
