Mrs. F. A. Joines, who is manager of the Joines Cafe in Wilkesboro, suffered a severe fall about five o'clock Saturday noon in front of the Smithy Department store's grocery department. Mrs. Joines fell from the top step across the sidewalk and into the street on the east side of the county courthouse. As a result of the fall she suffered a bad fracture of the right hip. Mrs. Joines' condition was reported today as well as might be expected, taking into consideration the seriousness of the injury.
