

• SOCIAL NEWS •

Clubs, Parties, Church Activities, Etc.

MISS MAMIE SOCKWELL — EDITOR

Mrs. J. M. Crawford Entertains Her Club

Members of the Current Topic club and a trio of visitors were entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. M. Crawford at her home on 'E' Street. Rook was played at three tables, following a one o'clock luncheon, with the high and low score awards going to Mrs. E. E. Eller and Mrs. Ira Payne. Visitors of the club were Mesdames J. D. Moore, Sr., Weaver Starr, and Oliver Absher.

The Harold Sturdivants Feted At Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sturdivant entertained at a dinner party at their home in Wilkesboro Tuesday evening honoring their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sturdivant, who were married Saturday, September 24. The bride is the former Josephine Lassiter, of Four Oaks. Covers were laid for fourteen at the dining table and a small table attractively decorated with white carnations, fern, and white candles. Mrs. Sturdivant, the honoree, and Mrs. Tal Barnes, Jr., received silver from their hosts. Mrs. Barnes is the former Miss Lea Walsh.

Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr. Celebrates Birthday

The family members of Mrs. J. D. Moore, Sr., entertained at a surprise birthday supper honoring her Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moore. The honoree's seventieth anniversary was on Saturday, but the supper was given Friday evening. Mrs. Moore's daughter, Mrs. Catherine Carrington, took her to Winston-Salem Friday afternoon, and upon their return found members of the Moore family already assembled for the occasion. The honoree received lots of lovely gifts.

Absher-Cuthbertson Vows Are Pledged In Home Ceremony

Greensboro. — Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Martha Absher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Absher of North Wilkesboro, and Worth Cuthbertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Cuthbertson, 1717 Britton Street, Saturday, October 8, at 5 p. m. in the home of the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cuthbertson, 2621 Springwood Drive. Rev. Ray W. Harrington, pastor of Bessemer Baptist Church, heard the vows.

The bride was attended by her aunt, Mrs. Arnold Davis of North Wilkesboro, and E. A. Cuthbertson served as best man for his brother, K. A. Beaver of Fort Bragg and Greensboro ushered.

The vows were spoken before an altar improvised in front of the fireplace with palms, baskets of white flowers, and two eight-branched candelabra.

The bride wore an ice-blue satin dress fashioned with three-quarter length sleeves and floating panels. She wore a black hat with shoulder veiling and carried a white prayer book showered with gardenias and baby's breath. Her only jewelry was a triple strand of pearls given to her mother by her father on their wedding day.

The attendant wore a black dress with black accessories and had a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Cuthbertson had a black dress with black accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore a blue dress and black accessories. Both had a corsage of red roses.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 2621 Springwood Drive.

Mrs. Cuthbertson was graduated from high school in North Wilkesboro and prior to her marriage was employed by Jenkins Hardware and Furniture Company in North Wilkesboro. Mr. Cuthbertson served five years in the army during the war and is a pitcher for Wytheville, Va., baseball club in the Blue Ridge League. He was formerly with the Greensboro Patriots.

The Watt M. Coopers Honored At Party

The Presbyterian church entertained at a delightful social event in the educational building of the church on Wednesday evening honoring Rev. Watt M. Cooper, pastor of the church. Mrs. Cooper, and their young son, Larry, who are leaving North Wilkesboro to make their home elsewhere. Rev. Mr. Cooper has accepted work at the Steele Creek Presbyterian church near Charlotte.

Approximately 200 people, including the children, attended the event, which opened with group singing directed by R. N. Wooten. A program of varied entertainment was enjoyed throughout the evening. John T. Cashion, chairman of the entertainment committee, sang two original numbers featuring the Coopers, and Rev. Mr. Cooper told one of his tall fish tales.

The church presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cooper a lovely silver service. The refreshment committee served punch and cookies from two beautifully appointed tables.

Legion Auxiliary Has Supper Meeting

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary enjoyed a covered dish supper at the Legion hut Monday evening, having around twenty-five present. Following the supper Mrs. R. G. Finley, the president, presided for a business session and announced the new committee members for the year. Because of the resignation of Mrs. Harry Hettiger, Miss Evelyn Little was elected as the new treasurer for the Auxiliary. It was decided to send Christmas boxes to veterans at Oteen and Fayetteville totaling a cost of around a hundred dollars. Mrs. J. H. McNeill, chairman of the sale of the T. B. Seals, called for volunteers to help in the drive to which a number of the women responded.

Mrs. J. A. Rousseau, presented Miss Frances Harris and Miss Dorothy Foster, students in the North Wilkesboro and Wilkesboro public schools, who gave fine reports of the Girls' State meeting they attended this summer at Woman's College in Greensboro.

Mrs. James R. Scroggs Honored At Party

Mrs. J. E. Duncan and Mrs. Don Gregory entertained at the home of Mrs. Duncan on 'F' Street Friday evening honoring Mrs. James R. Scroggs, whose marriage has been recently announced. The honoree, the former Miss Ann Hayes, the hostesses, and the guests all are members of the Duke Power office personnel. Following an informal hour of games and contests the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The dining table, spread with a white lace cloth, was decorated with white flowers, white candles, and greenery. Mrs. Scroggs received gifts of silver from the group, also a corsage from the hostesses.

Fidelis Class Holds Monthly Meeting

Twenty-one members attended the monthly meeting of the Wilkesboro Baptist Fidelis class held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ray Stroud with Mrs. W. N. Brookshire and Mrs. Zeb Dickson as associate hostesses. Mrs. George Parlier, the president, opened the meeting with a devotional period, then presided for the business session. Mrs. William C. Hayes and Mrs. Ed. Wood were welcomed into the class as new members. Refreshments were enjoyed during the social hour.

Ford Named To Head Elkin Kiwanis

Elkin.—Rev. Howard Ford was elected by acclamation to head the Elkin Kiwanis Club as president during 1950 at last Thursday's meeting of the club, which featured the annual election of officers. Mr. Ford is serving as vice president during the current year, and will succeed C. H. Leary when he takes office as president next January.

C. J. Hyslop, a member of the present board of directors, was elected by acclamation as vice-president. J. L. Hall was also elected by acclamation to succeed himself as treasurer, a post he has filled for years.

Benefit Card Party Held Thursday Night

The members of the finance committee of the Wilkesboro Woman's club, Mesdames Robert Gambill, Presley Myers, and E. E. Vaught, gave a benefit card party at the Community House in Wilkesboro Thursday evening. Cards were played at thirteen tables with prizes for high scores in bridge going to Mrs. Edison Norman and Dr. William C. Hayes and in rook to Mrs. Clint Foster and Charles Garwood. Receiving low score awards were Dr. G. T. Mitchell, William Cray, and Mrs. Walter Irwin. Setback high and low score awards were won by Robert Gambill and Walter Irwin, and bingo prizes by Mesdames Jack Swofford, James Lowe, and W. K. Sturdivant with the grand prize in bingo going to Charles Garwood. Several door prizes were awarded.

Most of the prizes given during the evening were donated by the business firms of Wilkesboro and North Wilkesboro and the grand prize in bingo, a coconut cake, was given by Mrs. T. E. Story. The players were served a dessert course at the beginning of the evening. Quantities of fall flowers, new drapes and new venetian blinds made a colorful setting for the occasion. Members of the Sans Souci club were guests at the party of Mrs. Ray Barnes, who presented high and second high score prize to Mrs. J. S. Zimmerman and Mrs. M. M. Brame, Jr. Net proceeds for the evening amounted to about $45.00.

FILM DEVELOPED 25c 8 EXP. ROLL

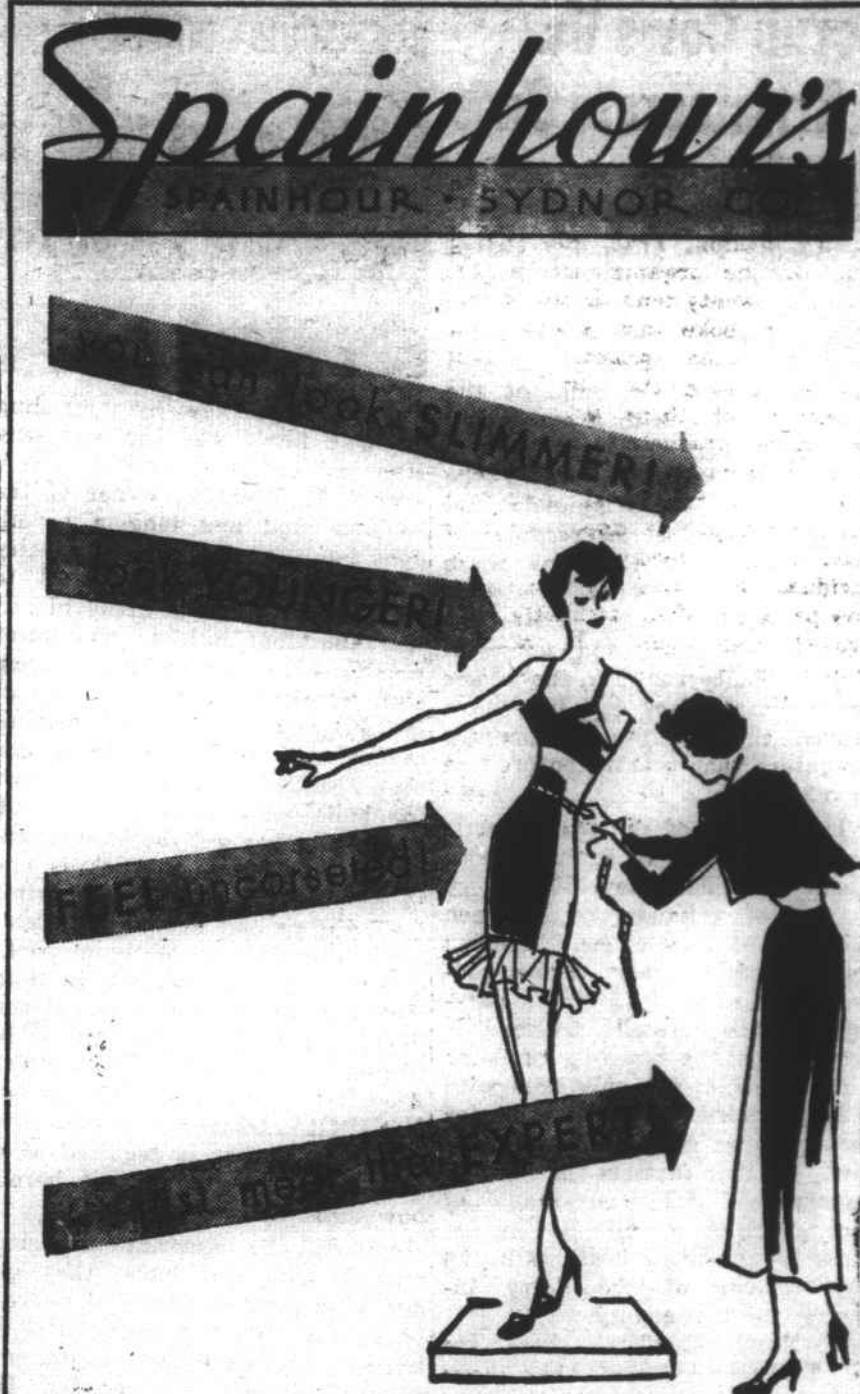

OVERNIGHT SERVICE
Westbrook Photo
Todd, N. C.

How Are Your Floors?

FREE ESTIMATES ON
Inlaid Linoleum
Asphalt & Rubber Tile or Wall Linoleum

Gray Brothers FURNITURE CO.

WILKESBORO, N. C.

MRS. EVA WILLIAMS

will be here: MONDAY, OCTOBER 24TH

This is a special invitation to you, and you, AND YOU... to personally meet "Gossard's" Figure Analysis Expert. She will be here to give INDIVIDUAL figure and fashion advice... and her skilled attention to the selection and fitting of your new GOSSARD! Of course, there is no charge or obligation for this advisory service!

DO remember this DATE!
MONDAY, OCTOBER 24TH

the GOSSARD Line of Beauty

Mr. LeGrand Scott

expert furrier from New York City

will be here

Monday, October 24th

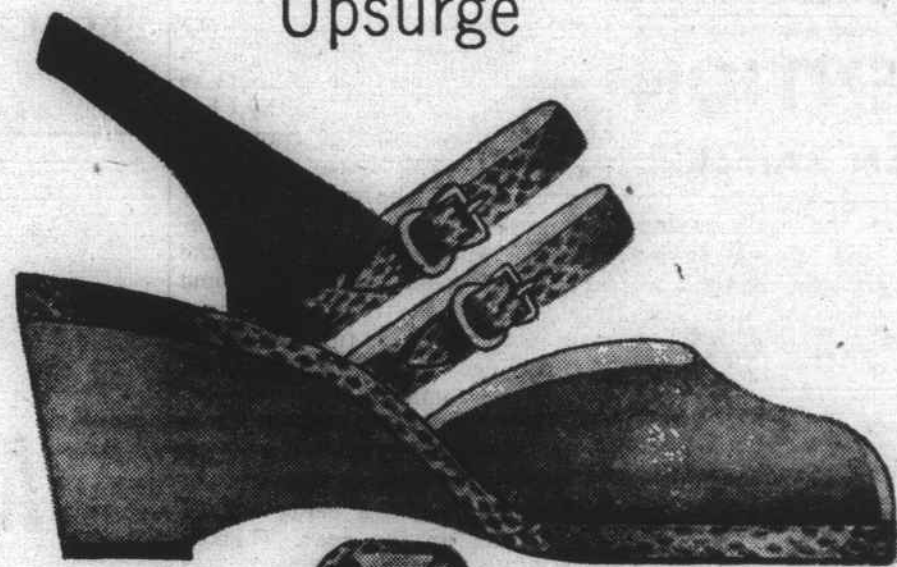

With An Outstanding Collection Of Fine Furs.

Come in and consult Mr. Scott about your fur problems.

Spainhour's

T&C's
Upsurge

Newest Town & Country star... designed in reptile and suede for all fall textured woolens. Good-looking, comfortable and fashion-right. 9.95

Town & Country shoes

Spainhour's