Walsh-Huskey Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walsh, of Boomer, announce the engagement of their daughter, Iris Cleo, to Troy Rufus Huskey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Huskey, Sr., of Avondale. The wedding will take place in November.

Both young people are now attending school at the Appalachian State Teachers College, where Miss Walsh is a junior, and Mr. Huskey, who is a senior, expects to graduate in February.

Miss Iris Cleo Walsh Feted At Party

Miss Iris Cleo Walsh, whose wedding will be an event of next month to Troy Rufus Huskey, was honored by her sister, Miss Sue Walsh, on Saturday evening, with a lingerie shower at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walsh.

Beautiful fall flowers in colorful arrangements decorated the room where the guests were entertained. Bridal games under the direction of Mrs. Lois Foster and Miss Iva Lou Walsh were played. The hostess was assisted in serving delicious refreshments by Miss June Foster and Miss Ina Walsh.

MYF Sub-District Meeting Held In North Wilkesboro

The Wilkes County Sub-district meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship was held Monday evening at the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church with an attendance of thirty young people. Miss Frances Johnson, the president, presided for the business session, and Miss Betsy Doughton was the program leader. The program included a story by Mrs. Robert Johnson and a duet by Miss Doughton and Miss Mary Yeakle Phipps, who sang "God, Who Touches Earth With Beauty." They were accompanied at the piano by Miss Rebecca Raper.

Following the program held in the sanctuary of the church, the group assembled in the educational building for folk games directed by Miss Raper, and refreshments served by the host church.

Handel Music Club Met On Saturday

Miss Roberta Gibbs entertained members of the Handel Music Club at the home of her mother, Mrs. Robert Gibbs, Saturday afternoon, October 15. There were eight members and one visitor present for the first meeting of this season.

Officers elected for the following year were: Miss Nell Gwyn Brame, president; Miss June Foster, vice president; Miss Iva Lou Walsh, secretary and Miss Donna Smith, treasurer. Meetings are to be held the second Saturday of each month at 3:00 o'clock.

The following selections were rendered by club members: Piano duet—Invention in F Major—Bach, Mrs. Gibbs and Calvin Hayes; Violin solo—Short Waltz—Leopold Dancla, Jack Foster accompanied by June Foster; piano solo—Fragmentary Prelude—Marryott, June Foster. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Jr. Woman's Club In Monthly Meeting

Twenty-two new members were welcomed into the Junior Woman's club at the monthly meeting held Monday evening at the Woman's clubhouse, and are as follows: Mesdames Clyde Waugh, Clint Foster, Ray Harris, L. B. Waites, Jr., Pat Williams, Jr., Jeanne Moore Brzostowski, Ronald Smith, C. F. Lovette, Paul West, R. H. McNeill, Bradley Davis, Charles Winters, T. J. Jones, Fred Davis, Phil Forester, Edwin Link, Ed Day, Misses June Weisinger, Ruth Thompson, Martha Lue Frazier, and Ruth King Wood. On behalf of the club Mrs. Maurice Walsh presented the new members with corsages.

Mrs. Charles Ziliak, first vice president, presiding in the absence of Mrs. Oliver Absher, led the business session. Mrs. Ralph Frazier, chairman of the Children's Home Society drive, reported the club had raised $469.20. This exceeds the amounts raised in other towns in this district.

Mrs. Robert Gibbs, the speaker for the evening, was presented by Mrs. Paul Cashion. Mrs. Gibbs brought out points of interest on Scout work in the county.

Wesleyan Service Guild In Meeting

Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild met on Tuesday night, October 11, at the home of Miss Pat Somers with Mrs. Fred Henderson as co-hostesses. Miss Dessie Hanks presided over the business session.

Mrs. Johnson Saunders presented the Bible study for the evening after which Mrs. Fred Henderson and Miss Dessie Hanks reviewed articles about "Home Mission Schools."

At the conclusion of the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by those present and delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mrs. Dale Andrews Honored Tuesday

Mrs. Walter Day and her daughter, Miss Virginia Day, entertained at a miscellaneous shower at their home in Finley Park Tuesday evening, honoring Mrs. Dale Andrews, the former Miss Pat Rhodes. Bingo and various contests provided entertainment, after which the honoree was showered with lots of lovely gifts. Colorful fall flowers made a festive setting for the occasion. At the close of the evening the hostesses served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. Balmer Hayes W.S.C.S. Hostess

Mrs. Balmer Hayes was hostess to the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Millers Creek Methodist church Thursday night at her home.

An interesting program was conducted by Mrs. Hayes, assisted by several of the thirteen members present.

Following the business session, delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, including a lighted birthday cake honoring Miss Linda Jean Hayes, daughter of the hostess.

All members are urged to attend the November meeting at the home of Mrs. James Foster near Millers Creek.

Projects Presented At Club Meeting

A presentation of projects made up the program for the monthly meeting of the Senior Woman's club held Monday afternoon at the Woman's clubhouse. Mrs. Edd F. Gardner, program chairman, presented the speakers and also spoke briefly on 'Our Obligation to Youth.' Dr. J. H. McNeill spoke on the sale of the T. B. seals and commended the club women on their accomplishments in this work, and the improvements made at the Wilkes County Sanatorium and progress made in combatting the disease. Mrs. Charles Ziliak, a member of the Junior Woman's club, told about the cancer clinic and the necessity of the women volunteering to help at these clinics. Mrs. W. K. Sturdivant presented the work of the Girl Scouts and the drive for funds to begin soon and called for volunteers to help in the solicitation. Mrs. H. G. Duncan, president of the garden club, told some things about the work of the club, and their theme for the year "Appreciation of Flowers."

Mrs. Ivey Moore, the president, was in charge of the business session, during which time a number of the women volunteered to help in the above projects presented. The hostess group served refreshments during the social hour to the large number of members attending.

The clubhouse was attractively decorated with mixed fall blossoms.

Bellevue Baptist Church, Memphis, is planning a new auditorium to seat 3,000. The cost is about $900,000. Robert G. Lee is the pastor.
