First Methodist
Children Have
Weiner Roast

The children in the Primary Department of the North Wilkesboro First Methodist church were given a weiner roast Wednesday afternoon in the basement of the educational building. Around twenty were present and enjoyed stories and games directed by Mrs. Harold Sturdivant, superintendent of the department, after which the refreshments were served. Assisting Mrs. Sturdivant with the entertainment of the children were Mrs. Weaver Starr, Mrs. Joe H. Parson, Mrs. E. L. Derrick, and Miss Jo Ann Byers.

Lois Ellen Handy
Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. L. J. Handy, of London, Ky., who with her family was here on a visit with relatives, entertained at a children's party at the home of Mrs. Handy's mother, Mrs. D. G. Wiles, on Saturday afternoon honoring her little daughter, Lois Ellen, on her fourth birthday anniversary. Around sixteen boys and girls came to celebrate the occasion with Lois Ellen and were directed in some games and contests. The white birthday cake, topped with four pink candles, was served with ice cream. The honoree received lots of nice gifts, and favors for the children were pink and blue plastic baskets filled with candy.

Euzelian S. S. Class
Largely Attended

Thirty-three members attended the monthly meeting of the Euzelian Class of the First Baptist church held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Claude Canter with Mesdames James Kennerly, J. H. Sowder, Bill Johnson, and Bill Miller as co-hostesses. Miss Marcel Deal led the devotions with the prayer being offered by Mrs. Homer Brookshire. Mrs. J. H. Armfield directed the program taken from the book, "Abundant Living," being assisted by Mrs. Clint Foster, who gave Steps in Overcoming Insincerity, and Mrs. T. O. Crowell gave a talk on Prayer.

Mrs. Allie Hayes, the president, was in charge of the business session when plans were made for the Christmas party to be held at the Woman's club-house, the date of the next regular meeting, December 13. During the social hour games were directed by Mrs. Eddie Morrison, Mrs. Clyde Waugh, and Mrs. Crowell, after which the hostess group served refreshments.
