

Much Interest Here In Shrine Bowl Game To Be Played In Charlotte

Carolina Teams Clash Saturday

Ray Triplett Member Of North Carolina Team To Play In Charlotte

The Shrine Bowl football game to be played in Charlotte Saturday afternoon, Dec. 3, is attracting more interest here than ever before.

The big reason for this interest here is the fact that Ray Triplett, backfield ace of the Wilkesboro Ramblers, is a member of the North Carolina team, which will play the South Carolina all stars in the colorful contest.

The squads have been working out this week under direction of their respective coaches. Ray Triplett has been used much in practice and may get a starting berth on the North Carolina team. Reports from Charlotte state that Ray has been showing up well as a flanker in getting down under passes and may see much action.

The North Carolina team will use the T formation while South Carolina will operate from the single wing.

Reports from Charlotte indicate that the Shrine bowl game, annually sponsored by Shriners to aid crippled children, will be the most colorful in the long history of the event.

Thirty-three of the best bands from the Carolinas will play at the game and will add color to the already colorful event, and the parade preceding the game.

In view of the fact that a local player for the first time will participate in the game, it is expected that many from here will see the game. To be selected to play in the Shrine Bowl is

Funeral For Lula Lomax On Monday

Mary Lula Lomax, daughter of the late Lee and Martha Lomax, was born in Wilkesboro, Sept. 30, 1885. She died at the Wilkes Hospital on Nov. 26, 1949.

She was a member of Denny Grove A. M. E. Zion church in Wilkesboro for many years, and served as Sunday school teacher and class leader over a long period of time. She was also member of Old Testament Club, a church organization.

The funeral at Denny Grove church Monday was conducted by Dr. W. Thomas Martin, Jr., pastor, assisted by Rev. William Bailey, of St. Home Methodist church. Pallbearers were: Lee, Charles and William Lomax, Roy, Leander and Robert Harris.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the funeral service, among those present being white friends who had known Lula for many years. As the pastor stated, Lula needed no one to preach her funeral. She did this as she went along life's way. She was a consecrated, Christian woman; loyal to any trust given her; and lived an exemplary life. Lula always had a smile for those she met, and never was she heard to speak evil of others. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

Lula is survived by a sister, Mrs. Carrie Harris, of Wilkesboro; three nieces: Mrs. Alease Cundiff, Mrs. Louise Falge, and Mrs. Elizabeth Woods of Washington, D. C., and five nephews, William Harris, of Wilkesboro; Lee, Charles and William Lomax, of Washington, D. C., and James R. Lomax, Jr., of California. —Contributed.

Roaring River Club November Meeting

On Friday, November 18, 2 p. m. twenty members and one visitor, Mrs. Gales Scroggs, met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Dan Hudson, Mrs. G. W. Scroggs, Sr., president, called the meeting to order, also presided over the business session. Mrs. M. M. Prevette called the roll, read the minutes of last meeting and gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. James Henderson led the impressive Thanksgiving devotional.

Mrs. Dan Hudson, Red Cross leader, sold $15.00 worth of Christmas seals. We want to sell many more dollars worth as the money goes to a most worthy cause.

Mrs. Clyde Ward, family life leader, gave a most helpful and interesting demonstration on Family Life. She really did a fine piece of work. We all went home with a more determined will to meet our obligations with patience as parents. Her topic was "Family Teamwork". She said, "teamwork begins with marriage, we start saying "we" and "ours" instead of "I" and "my," "our money, our car". We are to share our troubles as well as our joys. We as parents want our children to remember about family worship as well as being trained to share in the work, for in the home is where God tells us to train up the child in the way we would have it live and when it's old it will not depart. Will our children remember that the blessing was asked before meals? Were we with our children at bedtime as they said their prayers? What will our children associate with Sunday? Will it bring memories of a family day, and the family going to church together? All of our children will remember some things about home and family relationships and the things they remember may seem of little importance to us, yet many of these little things will make a deep impression and help to determine the future of our children. Mrs. Ward closed with a very fitting prayer.

Mrs. Clarence Elmore, a representative for a Fuller Cosmetic, gave a demonstration and sold some products, giving the club a percentage of the sales.

Mrs. Hudson, assisted by her two daughters, Robin and Holt, served tempting refreshments of
