

WILKESBORO, NORTH WILKESBORO DIVIDE TWO BASKETBALL GAMES

North Wilkesboro girls and Wilkesboro boys emerged victors in the first basketball games of the season between the two schools here Tuesday night. The Mountain Lions won 24 to 13 while the Wilkesboro Ramblers evened the score with a 37 to 31 win in the nightcap.

Betty Whicker with eight and Nancy Woodruff with six led the victors in the opening game, while Peggy Jarvis scored all of Wilkesboro's 13 points.

The boys' game was a thriller from start to finish. The Mountain Lions took an early lead, which they did not relinquish until the fourth period when the score became tied. With two minutes to go Wilkesboro had a one point lead, and the Ramblers forged ahead rapidly in the closing minutes.

In the boys game the star was easily Dean Edwards, Rambler center who collected 25 points. Joe Eller with 13 was the leading scorer and outstanding player for North Wilkesboro. The North Wilkesboro boys showed much improvement over their play in the season's opener with Elkin here last week.

Bluejackets Will Play Enka Cagers On Friday Night

Eller's Bluejackets, who have been taking on some of Carolina's best basketball teams, will play another big-time team Friday night when they meet the Enka cagers from Asheville in Wilkesboro gymnasium. Game time will be eight o'clock.

Enka is second ranking team in the Textile basketball league, which includes the best semi-pro teams in the state. On the Enka team are a number of former college all-state players.

The Bluejackets, sponsored by Eller's Lumber Supply at Millers Creek, has a very creditable team which is putting semi-pro basketball on the map in northwestern North Carolina and deserves the support of all basketball fans in this vicinity.

The next home game of the Bluejackets will be against the Elkin Y. M. C. A. team next Wednesday night, eight o'clock, in Millers Creek gymnasium.
