Youths Face Liquor Haul Charges Here
Sparta.—A V. P. I. student and his two companions were arrested near Bluff Park Tuesday, when a Parkway Ranger who had stopped them for speeding found 36 gallons of white liquor in their car.
James Buchanan, 20, the student driver, and his two companions, Billy Rigby, 17, and Wallace McBride, 19, all of Roanoke, Va., were jailed here but moved to North Wilkesboro yesterday for a hearing. Buchanan was charged with transporting non-taxpaid liquor. His companions were charged with aiding and abetting.

Ranger Clay Caudill told this story of the capture:
Late Tuesday, he and several other Rangers in a pick-up truck gave chase to a car which they saw speeding near Bluff Park. The car picked up speed, but stopped when the youthful driver spotted a sheriff's car on the Parkway.
In examining the car, the officers uncovered 36 gallons of white liquor. Six half-gallon jars were in the back seat, and five cases were in the trunk.

The three told officers they had obtained the liquor in Ashe County, and were taking it to the school at Blacksburg, Va., for distribution.
Bond for Buchanan was set at $500, for McBride at $300, and for Rigby at $200. They are charged with a Federal offense
