Kilby-Mayberry Vows Are Spoken In Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Grace Frank Kilby and Marvin Lott Mayberry was solemnized in a lovely ceremony at the home of the bride on Sixth Street Saturday afternoon, December 17. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Franklin Kilby, of North Wilkesboro, and the groom is a son of Mrs. Marvin Mayberry, of Jonesville, and the late Mr. Mayberry.

Dr. John T. Wayland, pastor of the First Baptist church, heard the vows at five o'clock using the double ring ceremony before an altar improvised with greenery, white candles, and white flowers.

Only immediate family members attended.

The bride and groom entered together unattended. The bride for her nuptials was becomingly attired in a taupe suit with sable collar, brown accessories, and wore at her shoulder a corsage of brown orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points, and upon their return will be at home in North Wilkesboro. The bride's parents have issued cards making formal announcement of the marriage, also inclosed cards for a reception to be given at the Wilkes Hotel Friday evening, December 30.

The bride, a graduate of the North Wilkesboro high school, attended Salem College in Winston-Salem and the Carolina Business College at Charlotte. The groom, a graduate of the Jonesville high school and the Appalachian State Teachers' College at Boone last spring, is now assistant athletic coach in the North Wilkesboro high school. Prior to attending college, he served three years in the U. S. Navy.
