Walter F. Pierce
Funeral On Tuesday
Walter Franklin Pierce, 68, a well known farmer of the Wilkesboro route one community near Millers Creek, died early Monday. Born March 19, 1881, Mr. Pierce was a son of the late William and Caroline Eller Pierce. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Nancy E. Pierce, three sons and two daughters: T. O. Pierce, of Winston-Salem; L. F. Pierce, Wilkesboro route one; Sam Pierce, North Wilkesboro route one; Mrs. John Kilby and Miss Eunella Pierce, Wilkesboro route one.

Funeral service was held Tuesday, 11 a. m., at Arbor Grove church. Conducting the service were Rev. Kilgo Greene, Rev. J. L. A. Bumgarner, Rev. A. W. Eller and Rev. J. H. Bowman.

Mrs. Bessie Deal, of Maiden, spent last week here in the home of her son, Mr. Vernon Deal, and Mrs. Deal.

DISCUSSED THE SUPER H-BOMB

Honor Roll For Clevenger College Here Announced

The honor roll of Clevenger College of Business Administration for the six-week period recently ended was announced during a meeting of the student body held last Friday. A total of 14 students received a grade of A or all subjects, and 13 others barely missed the honor roll by receiving a grade lower than A on only one subject. According to the dean, this represents a notable improvement over the previous six weeks, for which period only seven students made honor roll grades. The honor students, as well as the student body as a whole, were congratulated by the dean as a result of their increased accomplishments.

Honor roll for the period was as follows:

R. L. Abernethy, Helen Eller, Elizabeth Forester and John Wyatt, all of North Wilkesboro; Sankie Billings, of Lomax; Paul Bumgarner, of Buck; Ernest Burchette, of Elkin; T. M. Eldridge of State Road; Charles Huntley of Lenoir; Fred Kilby, of Vannoy; George Pardue, of Hays; Curtis L. Woods, of Roaring River; Gary Wyatt, of Piney Creek.

The following also were given recognition for having received a grade lower than A on only one subject for the same period:

Clarence Addis, Odell Billings, Oren Byers, Wade Palmer, James

Parker, Herman Walker, all of West Jefferson; Thomas Crysel and Raymond Joines, of Wilkesboro; Patsy Lineberger, Mooresville; John Pennington, of West Jefferson; Luther Roberts, of Ronda; Luther Saylor, Wilkesboro; Bill Wray, of Elkin.

Friendship W. S. C. S. Met On February 1

Friendship Woman's Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Lin Bumgarner on Wednesday evening, February 1. Thirteen members and two visitors were present.

Worship — "Opening the Book of Books", and program — "Having the Bible is Not Enough" were very effectively presented by a number of women present.

Business consisted of appropriating gifts for three mission purposes and planning a February membership drive. Mrs. J. B. Rash, Mrs. N. W. Bumgarner, Mrs. W. C. Elledge and Mrs. Luther Nichols are the membership committee.

Mrs. Bumgarner with Mrs. Rash served tempting refreshments.

Mrs. W. C. Elledge will entertain the March meeting. That will be March 1. It is hoped that the crowd will be doubled.

Note Of Thanks

The people of Friendship church wish to express thanks for the cooperation which brought about the success of their two church suppers. They both together — December 3 and February 4 — netted $401.01.

From the building (which is provided with water, lights and heat) to the treasurer who deposits the money, there is much to be done. Donations of food, articles for sale, preparation and serving, use of cars and pickups, dishwashing, music, flowers, auctioneer, and especially the customers — not one could be spared or overlooked.
