Of Facts Involved Honest Statement

Whether wet or dry, practically every community of any size has establishments which sell intoxicating liquor. Some sell it in bottles or fruit jars out the back door. Others sell it over polished bars in luxurious surroundings. The effect is similar in all cases.

On February 24, 1886, a man by name of James Lawrence ran an advertisement in the Boise Democrat. The advertisement contained so much truth that it is worth reproducing anywhere. The text of the ad follows:

"Friends and neighbors; having just opened a commodious shop for the sale of liquid fire, I embrace this opportunity of informing you that I have commenced the business of making drunkards, paupers, and beggars for the sober, industrious and respectable portion of the community to support.

"I shall deal in familiar spirits which will incite men to deeds of riot, robbery, and bloodshed, and by so doing, diminish the comfort, augment the expenses and endanger the welfare of the community.

"I will, on short notice, for a small sum, and with great expectations, undertake to prepare victims for the asylums, poor farms, prisons and gallows.

"I will furnish an article that will increase accidents, multiply the number of distressing diseases, and render those who are harmless incurable.

"I will deal in drugs which will deprive some of life, many of reason, most of their property, and all of their peace; which will cause fathers to become fiends, and wives, widows, children to become orphans and all mendicants.

"I will cause many of the rising generation to grow up in ignorance and prove a burden and a nuisance to the nation. I will cause mothers to forget their offspring, and cruelty to take the place of love.

"I will sometimes corrupt the ministers of religion; defile the purity of the church and cause temporal, spiritual, and eternal death; and if any be so impertinent as to ask me why I have the audacity to bring such accumulated misery upon the people, my honest reply is 'money.' The spirits trade is lucrative and some professing Christians give it their cheerful countenance.

"From the United States Government I have purchased the right to demolish the character, destroy the health, and shorten the lives and ruin the souls of those who choose to honor me with their custom.

"I pledge myself to do all that I have promised. Those who wish any of the evils above specified brought upon themselves or their dear friends, are requested to meet me at my bar where I will, for a few cents, furnish them with the certain means of doing so."

If those dealing in liquor want to make a display of honesty they may show the above advertisement conspicuously in their places of business.

Temperance, be it understood, is a double-edged sword that cuts away excess to secure a balance.

Rubinoff Coming For Concert Here

During the past few years this community has been fortunate in having some of the best artists of the nation perform here.

Now the North Wilkesboro Lions club has secured Rubinoff and his violin for a concert on the night of March 22 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubhouse.

Rubinoff is nationally and internationally known as a top artist in his profession, and his concert here will represent a rare opportunity for a comparatively small community. Rubinoff has been heard for years over radio and his violin is known by millions.

The Lions Club is bringing Rubinoff here and the success of the venture may indicate our future in regard to events of this type. If a capacity crowd hears the great artist it will be an indication that we can expect more events of that type.

Members of the club have started the sale of reserved seat tickets for the concert. In view of the fact that the club will retain for charitable use here a portion of all ticket sale receipts, the public should buy the tickets as liberally as possible.

-THE- EVERYDAY COUNSELOR

By Rev. Herbert
Spaugh, D. D.

"Thou Wilt Keep Him In Perfect Peace, Whose Mind Is Stayed On Thee."

Make this promise from the Book of Isaiah your own. Clip it out of this paper and put it before you where you will start each day with it. Few there are who do not need the blessing of that promise.

What a multitude of ills, bodily, mental and spiritual we carry about because we do not have the peace of God in our hearts. Call it nervousness; call it irritability; call it strain; call it hypertension; call it what you will. But a large percentage of the troubles you are carrying about right now would head toward rapid solution if you could get the peace of God in your heart.

It is not an easy thing to fully yield your will to the Divine will. It is not as easy as it sounds to put your hand in the hand of God and from the bottom of your heart express willingness to go the way He leads.

Yet, for those of us who do that, there is promised PEACE. Perhaps in desperation some of us may in these days be led to try God's plan for our life; we've tried everybody else's.

Of the seven material wonders of the ancient world, only one remains today, the Pyramids. Everything else is gone. One hesitates to name the seven wonders of the modern world, because as fast as we build one new machine or erect some new material wonder, someone invents another one to destroy it. The rate of property destruction in Europe during the last war was utterly staggering. Now we plan more atomic bombs and the manufacture of the hydrogen bomb.

All of these material wonders may pass on, yet we have one link with the past which goes back beyond the Pyramids—GOD'S WORD. And it is God's Word which gives us these promises—promises backed by the living proof of men and women throughout centuries.

Upward of three thousand years ago the prophet Isaiah made the promise which heads this column. In another place he wrote, "I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee. . . In quietness and confidence shall be your strength. . . They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength."

Two thousand years ago Jesus said to those who accepted Him as Saviour, "Peace I Leave With You, My Peace I Give Unto You: Not as the World Giveth, Give I Unto You. Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled, Neither Let It Be Afraid."

The Apostle Peter who had to learn by bitter experience that this was the only peace, said, "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time; Casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you."

Mt. Pleasant Home Club In Meeting

The Mt. Pleasant Home Demonstration Club held its second meeting of the new year at the school lunch room on Monday, February 27th, at 8:00 p. m., with twenty-two present, including visitors and new members.

In the absence of our president, the vice president, Mrs. Mabel Eller, took charge. Mrs. Annie H. Greene led in the singing of "It's A Good Time To Get Together." Mrs. Annie Ellis, secretary, read the minutes and called the roll.

During the business period the vice president read off the club project leaders, which had been selected by the president, to serve for 1950. Sue Eller and Gladys Shoemaker volunteered to be hostesses for our March meeting which was necessary to change to meet on the fourth Monday of each month instead of the second.

Mrs. Annie H. Greene, Home Agent, gave an interesting demonstration on "Improving Our Home Grounds." Think it was enjoyed by all and will help us to make our Home Grounds more beautiful.

Mrs. Verle Eller, our president, slipped in while the meeting was under way and took charge of the latter part of the meeting. Since most of the members forgot about the seed exchange, she asked that we have our seed exchange next month. Mrs. T. O. Minton was nominated by secret ballot to be lady of the month from our club. Heart Sisters were drawn for this year. The meeting was closed by a prayer led by Mrs. G. C. Hamby.

The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. T. O. Minton and Mrs. Kinsa Ellis. At the close of the meeting they served spice wood tea, Ritz crackers and Valentine hearts candy. A game was played in which everybody got a laugh and Mrs. Novalla Foster won the prize, an apron.—Reported.

Representative Deane Files His Candidacy

Representative Charles B. Deane of Dockingham, member of Congress from the Eighth Congressional District, filed his Notice of Candidacy for re-election with the State Board of Elections Monday, subject to the Democratic Primary on May 27, 1950.

Mr. Deane came to North Carolina from Washington over the past week-end to file his candidacy for re-election. On yesterday he spoke at the All Souls Chapel in Monroe and on Tuesday evening, March 7, 1950, he speaks before the Laurinburg Lions Club and on Wednesday he will return to his duties in Washington.
