LOCALS

Mr. John Deal returned to his home in Richmond, Va., several days ago after visiting with Mr. W. E. Pharr and other friends in Wilkesboro. Mr. Deal is a brother of the late Editor Bob Deal of The Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor Wanless, of Springfield, Ill., arrived here Wednesday for a short visit with Mrs. Wanless's parents, Judge and Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes. On Saturday they left for Miami, Fla., where they will spend about three weeks. Miss Rebecca Hayes, a student at Greensboro College, another daughter of Judge and Mrs. Hayes came home Thursday and was here the remainder of the week.

A number of people from here went to Winston-Salem last Saturday evening to attend Robert Shaw's Chorale given in Reynolds Auditorium under the auspices of the Community Concert Association. Among those going down were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Adamson, Mesdames L. M. Nelson, C. Don Coffey, Jr., Dan Carter, R. G. Finley, A. F. Kilby, C. T. Doughton, G. T. Mitchell, H. B. Smith, J. S. Deans, R. S. Gibbs, Misses Jane Carter, Elizabeth Finley, Lois Scroggs, Martha Lou Frazier, Ruby Blackburn, Rebecca Raper, Carolyn Deans, Christine and Doris Ann Gobey, Sarah Jane

Judy, Roberts Gibbs, Betsy Mitchell, Mickey Somers, Mr. and Mrs. Tom T. Foster, Hyatt Gibbs, and Thomas Finley.

Messrs. Peter Marovel, of Massachusetts, and John Branch, of Richmond, Va., who performed in Robert Shaw's Chorale given in Winston-Salem last Saturday in the Reynolds auditorium under the auspices of the Community Concert Association, were guests last Sunday of Miss Martha Lou Frazier. Mr. Marovel, a bass baritone, and Mr. Branch, who plays the viola, in the orchestra, students at the Juilliard School of Music in New York City, were at Juilliard while Miss Frazier was attending the school, as well as a number of other members of the Chorale. The visitors were accompanied to Winston-Salem Sunday afternoon by Miss Frazier and Miss Lois Scroggs, and from there they went on to High Point for the next concert.

A description of the numerous types and sizes of containers commonly used for shipping fresh fruits and vegetables is provided in Farmers Bulletin No. 2013, recently issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.
