

SOCIETY:

Miss Corinne Faw Feted At Tea

An interesting social event of the week was the lovely tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Floyd C. Forester and her two daughters, Mrs. Frank Blair and Mrs. Watson Brame, at the Forester home on D Street honoring Miss Corinne Faw, who was married on Saturday to Charles Shelton Sink, Jr., of North Wilkesboro. A large number of friends called between the hours of three to six to greet the honoree, niece and cousin of the hostess group, and to enjoy their gracious hospitality.

Mrs. Brame and Mrs. Gordon Finley welcomed the callers at the door, and receiving with Mrs. Forester were Mrs. C. C. Faw, mother of the bride; Miss Faw, Mrs. C. S. Sink, mother of the groom; Mrs. Blair, Mrs. W. A. Bonville, Jr., of Wilmington, sister of the honoree; Miss Hattie McLean, sister of Mrs. Forester; Miss Frances Jones, and Mrs. Worth Tomlinson, the former Miss Nan Davis, of Winston-Salem. Miss McLean and Miss Jones, both of Winston-Salem, were houseguests of Mrs. Forester.

Directing guests from the library to the hall were Mrs. Frank Tomlinson, and to the dining room Mrs. W. M. Deberry and Mrs. Boyd Stout. Mrs. Johnson J. Hayes and Mrs. Edward G. Finley alternated at the tea table, beautifully appointed in a green and white motif, with Mrs. James M. Anderson and Mrs. Darwin Smiley. Assisting with the serving were Mesdames F. D. Forester, Jr., W. F. Asher, Henry Moore, Harold Burke, C. C. Faw, Jr., and Miss Linda Brame.

Mrs. Warner Miller, Sr., directed callers to the living room where Mrs. Eugene Trivette and Mrs. C. E. Jenkins, Sr. received. Good-byes were said in the sun parlor to Mrs. C. G. Poindexter.

The dining table, spread with a white Maderia cloth, was centered with a huge bouquet of mixed white flowers about which four tall tapers gleamed. Elsewhere about the home spring flowers in pastel shades were artistically arranged. The bridal note was furthered in the mints and the individual cakes.

Musical Arts Club In Monthly Meeting

Mrs. A. E. Casey, Misses Ruth King Wood, Rebecca Kaper, and Ruby Blackburn combined hospitality to the members of the Musical Arts club in their monthly meeting held Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Casey. Miss Ellen Robinson, the president, was in charge of the business session.

For the program Mrs. Charles Zittak, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gwyn Gambill, gave a musical reading "The Waltz" Dorothy Parker. Mrs. Gambill rendered a piano solo "Polichinelle" Rachmaninoff.

Sometime was spent in practicing some choruses the group plan to sing at the next P. T. A. meeting. The meeting was largely attended and during the social hour, the hostesses served refreshments.

Millers Creek Club Has Good Meeting

Millers Creek Home Demonstration Club met March 16, 1950, 1:30 p. m. with Mrs. Haggie Faw hostess and Mrs. Monroe Faw co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by our president, Mrs. Paul Delp. We sang together the "Quilting Party" song and repeated the club collect.

The roll call showed seventeen present, and one visitor, Miss Irene McNeil.

Mrs. Delp gave us several important dates to remember. We voted to send $5.00 to the Red Cross drive.

Mrs. Q. O. Kilby, our poultry leader, had charge of the egg contest, which was won by Mrs. Ruff Dockery for having the most uniform dozen of eggs.

Mrs. J. B. Rash gave us an interesting demonstration on the subject of "Mirror, Mirror on the Wall." There being no further business the meeting was closed with a prayer by the group.

Delicious refreshments were served during the social hour by our hostesses.

Why Quibble Over Peanuts When Building A Home?

The exterior walls represent only 15% of the total cost of an average home. 85% is spent on the interior and roof. So why not build with Brick, the best building material known. The saving on maintenance, insurance and depreciation alone will more than pay any additional cost of Brick construction, in a few short years.

When you buy or build... don't quibble over peanuts. Insist on Brick. You'll have a better, more handsome home at a lower cost per year.
